To

HIS EXCELLENCY LORD PENTLAND, G.C.I.E., GOVERNOR OF FORT SAINT GEORGE
In Council,
M A D R A S.

The humble Memorial of Malik Kyruddin Husain Khan Sahib, grandson of the late Jagirdar of Sankarapuram and the Subadar of Arcot,

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH:-

That the Memorialist belongs to an ancient and respectable family whose loyalty and devotion to the British Raj is unflinching, a family that once held the Subadari of Arcot comprising the present North and South Arcot Districts, and dates its antiquity from the time of the Emperor Aurangzebe.

2. A detailed history of his family is recorded herein as well as the geneological tree given in Appendix A, connecting the memorialist with its progenitor, Malik Muhammad Aslam Khan Sahib Bahadur, who was a General of the Court of Delhi and sent to the south to put down disturbances and made for his bravery and remarkable military talents Subadar of Arcot by His Highness Nawab Anwaruddin Khan Bahadur the 1st Nawab of the Carnatic.
In the wars of Hyder Ali and Tippu Sultan of Mysore with the English during the 18th Century Muhammad Aslam Khan Bahadur and his successors had fought for the English, so much so that they were taken to Seringapatam as captives of war wherefrom they were liberated along with the English prisoners after 12 years' captivity. After their relief one of Aslam Khan's sons, Muhammad Ali Khan Sahib has obtained a monthly pension of 120 pagodas in lieu of the original Subadari of Arcot, which having dwindled in the meanwhile into the Jaghir of Sankarapuram was finally taken back by the British Government, a moiety of 60 pagodas being allowed to the family of Malik Muhammad Ali Khan Sahib whose dependants were large in number.

3. Subsequent to the demise of Malik Cawder Ahmad Khan Sahib, his eldest son Malik Kyruddin Husain Khan Sahib (petitioner's grandfather) was granted an incompatible and paltry share of Rs.32-5-0 per mensem for his maintenance. A protest having been made by him against the smallness of his means and provisions, the Honourable the Court of Directors in para 23 of their Despatch dated 28th January No.2 of 1857 to the Government Agent and Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, Chepauk, Madras, raised his pension from Rs.32-5-0 to Rs.50 per mensem (vide copy enclosed in Appendix B)

That the Memorialist therefore bears a close connection with the Jaghirdar of Sankarapuram and the self-sacrificing zeal, ardour and enthusiasm, fidelity and devotion of his illustrious family will find an abiding place in the generous heart of the Government and excite their compassion and mercy upon the impoverished conditions of his family, at this critical juncture, when owing to the straitened circumstances his education was confined to the Matriculation standard, up to which he read read and won a good character for industry and conduct, and the task of supporting his family has solely devolved upon his shoulders, which his narrow earnings cannot afford to bear.

4. That the Memorialist has attained proficiency in the oriental lore and is well versed in Persian, Hindustani and Tamil which many learned men have made an acknowledgment of and granted certificates for. He possesses also a sufficiently fair knowledge of English to cope with any office work he may be entrusted with, for his acting appointments as a clerk in different taluks of the District will indicate his diligence, honesty and zeal in the discharge of his legitimate duties on account of which the Memorialist was inevitably confirmed as a clerk in the Taluk Office Arcot, on Rs.15.

He was then transferred as a 2nd clerk in the Office of the Deputy Tahsildar, Vellore Town and was given promotion to the post of an Assistant Record Clerk on Rs.20 in the new North Arcot Collector's Office. The Memorialist begs to bring to Your Excellency's kind notice a few copies of his testimonials given in Appendix C. The Memorialist was first entertained in public service by the Honourable Mr. R.C.C. Carr, I.C.S., while he was the Collector of the old North Arcot District. He had the opportunity of testing the merits and capabilities of the Memorialist on different occasions and still the Memorialist in his high estimation and has always a favourable opinion of him.

5. That the Memorialist by virtue of the historical traditions, loyalty and allegiance of his
