I have the honour to forward herewith an application on behalf of M.R.Ry. N.S.Manikkam Pillai, first grade Sub-Inspector of Salem district, recommending his temporary exemption from passing the Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade, until the results of the examination to be held in October 1914 are known, for his employment as a Probationary Inspector of Police.

2. This Sub-Inspector was twice before recommended for permanent exemption and the Government refused to exempt him on both occasions - vide G.Os.No.698, Educational, dated the 3rd October 1911, and No.1101, Ids. Educational, dated the 11th December 1912. In his last recommendation Mr.Cowie

recommended the Sub-Inspector in the following terms:-

"This candidate is a first grade Sub-Inspector and has been for years in charge of heavy divisions and is an exceptionally able officer. He has maintained excellent discipline, and his record has been uniformly good. Recently he has worked the heavy Tiruchengode Division with great and conspicuous success. x x x. He merits promotion to the grade of Inspector and I would not recommend him but that he is an officer of exceptional merit." To this recommendation I would now add the specially meritorious work done by this Sub-Inspector in connection with the arrest of the last two Kulangalan brothers and the detection of what is known as the Goundanpalaiyam murder case. Mr. Cowie omitted to refer to Manikkam Pillai's work in these cases.

3. Of the five Kulangalan brothers, three were arrested in 1910 and the Inspector, who effected the arrest, was promoted to the grade of Deputy Superintendent. The remaining two brothers, one of whom had escaped while under remand in 1901 from the Central Jail, had evaded arrest for over ten years. There was a rumour that these brothers were dead. But Sub-Inspector Manikkam Pillai succeeded in establishing that this rumour was false and obtained information that they were somewhere in Mysore. He proceeded to Mysore with Inspector Devadasa Nadar and both of them disguised as estate agents traced the two brothers to their hiding place. When the village, in which the brothers were, was raided at night, only one brother was found who showed fight and Sub-Inspector Manikkam Pillai personally effected his arrest. The other brother was at the time some distance away and it was necessary not only to ensure the safety of the captured man, but also to prevent the other brother knowing anything of the arrest. An immediate start in search of the other brother was made and the two police officers discovered his hiding place and after a long march on foot arrested him. This arrest in Mysore territory under trying circumstances was a very praiseworthy act.

4. The detection of the murder case referred to above was a no less excellent piece of work. In this case a young man worth nearly 10 lacs of rupees, the adopted son of a mittadar, was murdered at the instigation of the widow of the mittadar, her paramour, and a neighbouring mittadar, who had a reversionary right to the deceased's property. The case was a very difficult one to work as the parties who were accused were wealthy and all the important witnesses were the tenants of the instigators of the crime. In spite of these difficulties the Sub-Inspector successfully worked up the case and nine persons were charged and convicted, of whom 8 including the widow, were sentenced to transportation for life and the principal accused to death.

5. I am sure that the Government will agree with me that the exceptionally good work of the Sub-Inspector entitles him to special recognition and the only manner in which this can be done is by promoting him to the grade of Inspector. Possibly in view of what has been stated above the Government may be now willing to grant Manikkam Pillai a permanent exemption and I submit that he fully deserves it. In order, however, that I may be fairly certain of securing some concession for this officer, I have limited my recommendation to temporary exemption so that he may be appointed a Probationary Inspector and appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

T.S.S.

that "it is not possible for him to study and pass the examination". Mr. Gillman thinks that, for the exceptionally good work that he has done, the sub-inspector fully deserves a permanent exemption; but he has only asked for temporary exemption for two years, ~~and stated~~ to "be fairly certain of securing some concession for this officer".

2. If the exemption is sanctioned, the I.G. proposes to appoint ^{Mr. Manikkam Pillai} ~~the~~ a probationary inspector for two years, and give him two chances of passing the Criminal Judicial Test. S.D.

The I.G.'s recommendation is based on strong grounds, but I cannot myself distinguish in principle a temporary from a permanent exemption.

Mr. Gillman has made out a much stronger case than we have had before, on the other two occasions and I would grant a permanent exemption. Exceptional conduct deserves & requires exceptional treatment.
