To

The Collector of Ganjam.

Through: The Sub Collector, Berhampur.

Dated, 24th April 1913.

Sir,

I beg to bring the following matter for your favourable consideration.

2. In G.O.No.593 Educational dated 24th October 1901, - C.Venkataratnam, an unpassed clerk of my office was, for his -- good work, exempted from examination rules, so as to enable him to hold a post carrying pay not exceeding Rs.25 per mensem. --- Since then, he has continued to work hard and well and successive Tahsildars have testified to his good work.

3. Since I took charge of this office, I have found him to be a most useful, capable and reliable clerk. He has a clear -- insight into the details of all branches of work in a Taluk - -- Office and the thoroughness, precision and readiness with which he works render him most useful in times of emergency.

4. The clerk has been entrusted with the Land Revenue -- D.C.B work a most difficult task in a Taluk office and he has -- acquitted himself to my entire satisfaction.

5. The stores work in this office was in a chaotic and -- disorderly state when I took charge, and finding that he was -- the only man here that could bring it to order, I entrusted him with the work. He took it up gladly, in addition to his already heavy duties, with an earnestness which is rarely seen in a -- Taluk office clerk and I must say that he has done it in a way - that does him credit.

6. This clerk is a non-brahman and has put in 16 years service. He has studied up to Matriculation, and though unpassed, possesses a knowledge of English which is not found in an average matriculate. He a Telugu man and has a thorough knowledge of Uriya.

7. When a vacancy of Rs.30 recently arose in my office I wanted to promote him but could not do so as he is exempted to hold a post of only Rs.25/ He is now a permanent Rs.25 clerk.

8. He is a strong and well-built man and was of great assistance to me in collection work. He was deputed to several villages on -- collection duty and he cleared off the balances in every village he visited. I consider that he will also make an excellent out-door - officer and that he is quite fit to hold the post of a Revenue --- Inspector.

9. For these reasons, I respectfully request that you will be -- pleased to recommend him for exemption from examination rules to -- enable him to hold a post of Rs.40/ so that he may be promoted to - the post of Taluk Head Gumasta on Rs.35 or a Revenue Inspector on - Rs.35 or Rs.40 - a concession which he highly merits.

I beg &c.

(Sd) J.Ramamurti,

24-4-13.
Tahsildar.

N.C.491/R/13.

Forwarded and recommended. I should like to be able to promote this man to a Rs.30/ post at least in the Taluk office, when occasion offers.
