In G.O. No. 204 Press Educational, dated 5th March 1913, sanction was accorded to the employment for a period of six months of two teachers on Rs.20/- each per mensem for imparting private tuition to the widows living in the Brahman widows' hostel attached to the Presidency Training School for mistresses, Madras, and it was stated that in reckoning the period of employment the summer vacation of the school should be excluded. In my letter R.C. No. 9095/12, dated 23rd January 1912 I recommended that the period of six months for which the two teachers should be employed should be exclusive of the summer vacation of the school, as I was given to understand that the widows would go away to their homes during that time. The Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Central Circle, now reports that all the widow pupils, who have been admitted into the hostel, have not gone to their respective homes during the vacation and that in order that the pupils might be benefited by the special arrangements made for private tuition, she has retained with effect from 1st May 1913-the date on which the Presidency Training School closed for the hot weather, the services of the two teachers.

I recommend that her action be approved and that the teachers be allowed pay during the summer vacation of the school as this is the best time for preparing the pupils for admission to the new classes after the reopening of the school.

This proposal will not, I understand, extend the period of 6 months for which sanction to the employment of two teachers has been accorded in G.O. No. 204 Press Educational, dated 5th March 1913.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

for Director of Public Instruction.
