Telegram—from the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education.

To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Dated—Simla, the 31st May 1913.

No.—962 (Education).

Government of India suggest that Viceroy's birthday, June the 20th, may be celebrated as a holiday in all schools.

Order—No. 518, Educational, dated 4th June 1913.

The Director of Public Instruction will be informed that the 20th June 1913, being the birthday of His Excellency Lord Hardinge, Viceroy and Governor-General of India, should be observed as a holiday in all schools under public management. The Director is requested to advise managers of other schools also to observe the holiday.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 518, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 4TH JUNE 1913.

[SUBJECT.—Suggesting that 20th June 1913, being the birthday of His Excellency Lord Hardinge, Viceroy and Governor-General of India, may be celebrated as a holiday in all schools.]

Telegram from the Government of India, Department of Education, No. 962, dated 31st May 1913.

Please see the Lady Hardinge's letter to the Surgeon-General published in the issue of the Madras Mail of 24th May 1913. The fête is therein stated to be intended "only for little children." It therefore seems doubtful whether the holiday should be notified for colleges also.

2. The order can have binding only on schools under public management. Please compare G.O. No. 343, Educational, dated 2nd June 1911. As it is the intention of Her Excellency that all school children in the Presidency should be entertained, the Director of Public Instruction may be asked to advise schools under private management also to observe the 20th June as a holiday.

3. Subject to approval, a draft order is submitted.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.), by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the rules in G.O., No. 1220, Public dated 30th November 1900.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, but only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.

A	B	C
Please send proof in triplicate. The papers have been carefully edited.	Proof returned corrected. Please strike off and send number of copies as indicated.	As the matter is clear manuscript and has been carefully edited, (b) proof need not be sent. Please print and supply number of copies as indicated.
