Sir,

With reference to the endorsement of Government No. 827-1 Educational, dated 22nd April 1913, I have the honour to state that from the opinion obtained by me on the Political Economy in Telugu written by M.R.Ry. C. Ramalinga Reddi I gather that the book is a very good one and is likely to be a means of diffusion of sound Economic views. I suggest that Government should purchase 125 copies of the book for distribution among such institutions under public and private management as may be expected to make use of it. This will add one book more to each of the 125 sets of 17 books each recommended to be purchased in my letter R. C. No. 10089/12, dated 14th March 1913

SUBJECT. Patronage of a book on political economy in Telugu.

B Please see G.O. 492 Etd of 29th May 1903 in which the application of the Vijnana Chandrika mandali of Chintamani, Medas, for Govt. patronage of its publications was rejected. The notes leading to the decision in that case are on pages 28, 29 and 32 of G.O. 549 Etd of 11-6-13.

C 2. The book on political economy in Telugu with which this file deals is said to be a very good one "Calculated to diffuse sound economic views." The D.P.D. recommends the purchase of 125 copies. The price of a copy is Rs 1-8-0. It will, however, be seen that 125 copies will cost Rs 187-8-0. The D.P.D.'s recommendation was made before he was aware of the decision in G.O. 492 Etd of 29-5-13.

B The orders on the large request equally apply to this application also. ~~It is not a subject which has been decided upon. The Govt. has decided to see the application and then decide whether to purchase or not. The application is not a subject which has been decided upon.
