First application.

There has been considerable difficulty in getting thoroughly qualified candidates for the place of the Junior Asst Steward. In receipt of G.O. No 1005 Police dated 16th August 1912, I put in an advertisement inviting educationally qualified candidates for the post. In reply of the applications I had for it were from unpassed candidates and a few qualified candidates who applied for the same, express their reluctance to attend work early in the mornings and have to leave the place to take up duty in the kitchen. Further they complain of long distance of the Asylum from the Central Town and the small pay. They are on the whole quite discontented and ask for general permission to apply elsewhere before taking up the appointment and thus to cause continuous interruptions in the department. I have experienced such a state of things not once but on several occasions previously.

Got a candidate - 16th Sept 1913.

C.S. 1, 14. 10. 1913. Supt. Govt. Lintatic Asylum. Sent to the Lintatic.

This candidate was employed in the Govt. Telegraph Department as a clerk for over two years viz from 1-6-1906 to 25-7-1908 and worked in the same capacity in several other offices for short periods. Because a sound knowledge of the duties he performs and is a quick and honest worker. I find that he belongs to a respectable family his grandfather being the retired Bahadur of Virudachellam, who served Government faithfully for a period of thirty years. His uncle is the head clerk Sub. Judge Court, Annamalai.
