ENCLOSURES.

(i)

Despatch—from the Government of India, Finance Department (Salaries, Establishments, etc.—Education).

To—His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Dated—Delhi, the 14th February 1913.

No.—36 of 1913.

We have the honour to address you on the subject of the creation of a post in the Indian Educational Service of Inspectorship of Schools for Coorg, the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore and the district of South Canara in the Madras Presidency. The scheme is amply set forth in the letter from the Resident in Mysore which forms an enclosure to the present despatch, and the Government of Madras have signified to us their agreement in the details of that letter.

2. We have carefully considered the objections which might be raised to the present proposal. The number of institutions in the three areas over which the Inspector will range is only 839, but for reasons presently to be stated we consider this point immaterial in the present case. The question of the general staff of Inspectors in Madras and its division between the Indian and the Provincial Educational Services does not here arise, for this post will be a post mainly for Bangalore and Coorg (notwithstanding that the institutions in South Canara are more numerous) and the importance of the scheme lies not so much in the reduction of the present heavy duties falling upon Inspectors in Madras as in the provision of adequate arrangements for two small but specially circumstanced and important areas. We have considered the questions of contiguity of the areas concerned and likewise of the languages spoken in them and we see no special difficulties in either of these respects. Nor do we think that inconvenience is likely to arise owing to the dual character of the control under which the Inspector will be placed. The financial adjustments which are proposed have been examined and appear to us to be on the whole fair. The total annual cost of the Inspector and his establishment, with travelling allowance and contingencies, will be Rs. 15,693 as shown in the separate statement of cost attached. Of this amount the Madras Government will pay one-third and the remainder will be equally divided between Imperial revenues and the Bangalore Assigned Tract Revenues, while the latter will continue to contribute Rs. 500 a year for the services of the Director of Public Instruction.

3. We do not consider that the small province of Coorg should be at any disadvantage as regards facilities for supervision and control in the matter of education. Another reason which leads us cordially to support this proposal is the very great importance of Bangalore as a centre of education and specially of the education of Europeans and members of the domiciled community. Owing to its cool and salubrious climate Bangalore is a favourite place of retirement and of residence. There are large and important schools for the education of Anglo-Indian children. At the recent conference held at Simla on the education of the domiciled community it was suggested that a Government training college for European teachers should be established at this centre. We need not remind your Lordship that Bangalore is also chosen as the site for the Indian Institute of Science.

4. We support the proposal to your Lordship and we request that a suitable officer may be recruited, possessed of the qualifications ordinarily required in Inspectors of Schools.

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

SUB-ENCLOSURES.

(1)

Letter—from the Hon'ble Lieut.-Col. Sir HUGH DALY, K.C.I.E., C.S.I., Resident in Mysore and Chief Commissioner of Coorg.

To—the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education.

Dated—Ootacamund, the 30th September 1912.

No.—94-C.

With reference to the correspondence ending with endorsement No. 83, dated the 15th February 1899, from the Government of India in the Home Department, I have the honour to address you on the subject of the inspection of schools in the province of Coorg and the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

2. It is unnecessary for me to invite attention to the fact that educational problems are assuming an increasingly important aspect and that the Government of India have initiated a more active policy with a view to combating illiteracy and expanding educational facilities. In dealing with the various schemes which have been submitted for the advancement of this policy in the areas under my control I have strongly felt the want of an educational officer of standing and experience, with Bangalore as his head-quarters, who could conveniently advise me in all matters connected with his department.

3. The arrangements for the inspection of the schools in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore and Coorg are briefly as follows:—

- (1) For the Civil and Military Station three Inspectors from Madras are in respective charge of European schools, Indian schools, and girls' schools.
- (2) All the schools in Coorg are inspected by an officer stationed at Cannanore.
- (3) All correspondence on educational matters, even of the most routine nature, is conducted between my office and that of the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

It will be seen that no less than four Inspectors are in charge of the schools within my administrative control, and that not one of these resides within the areas concerned. Considerable delay and correspondence must necessarily arise out of references to the District Board of Coorg or the Municipal Commission of the Civil and Military Station, which might, in my opinion, be avoided if an educational officer were permanently appointed to Bangalore, and the opportunity thus afforded for personal discussion of matters, in regard to which the executive and educational officers may be at variance, presents obvious advantages. I have discussed the position with the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, and the Madras Government, and I have the honour to submit the following proposal, which has their approval and support, for the sanction of the Government of India.

4. The Madras Presidency for educational purposes is divided into eight circles and it is understood that the creation of a ninth circle would enable the Madras Government to re-constitute certain charges which have been found to be excessive. It is proposed therefore to appoint a separate Inspector, with head-quarters at Bangalore, who will be in charge of all the schools both for boys and girls, European and Indian, in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore and in Coorg, with the addition of the South Canara district in the Madras Presidency. This officer will be a member of the Indian Educational Service and the appointment will be added to the Madras cadre. If this arrangement is carried out, from the point of view of my own administration, I would have the advantage of an educational officer almost permanently on the spot, who would be in charge of all the schools in the areas under my control. Secondly, this officer would be able to advise the Municipal Commission and to attend their meetings when educational matters were discussed. The Commission have entered on a scheme for developing municipal schools for which the Government of India have given a sum of Rs. 86,000 to be spent on buildings during the current and coming years, and the advantage of having an experienced educational officer permanently at hand to advise requires no comment. Thirdly, matters of pure routine and details of educational programmes could be discussed and settled on the spot before any reference need be made to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

5. I now come to an examination of the financial aspects of the proposal. At present small educational establishments are maintained in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore and in Coorg at an annual cost of Rs. 1,450 and Rs. 3,770, respectively. These sums, however, merely represent the cost of Sub-Assistant Inspectors and their establishment and have no bearing on the present proposals, which relate solely to superior inspection. As I have explained above, this latter work is performed at present by Inspectors of Madras circles, and while no charge is debited to the Coorg budget in this respect, the Bangalore Assigned Tract Revenues are debited in the pro forma accounts with the somewhat high charge of Rs. 7,000 annually. It is estimated that the scheme now submitted will cost approximately Rs. 14,559, as detailed below, and the Madras Government have expressed their readiness to meet one-third of this charge, viz., Rs. 4,853.

	Average.
	RS.
Salary of Inspector, Rs. 500—50—1,000 per mensem	805½
Salary of Establishment.
Head clerk, Rs. 50—2—60 per mensem	57½
Second clerk, Rs. 25—1—30 "	28½
Third clerk, Rs. 20—1—25 "	23½
Fourth clerk (typist), Rs. 20—1—25 per mensem	23½
Three peons at Rs. 8 per mensem	24

Annual total	11,559½

Travelling allowance.

	RS.
(a) of Inspector	1,500
(b) of establishment	350
Contingencies	1,150
Total	3,000
Grand total	14,559

To this, however, must be added provision for the accommodation of the office. I have not yet ascertained the cost of a suitable building, but as the construction of an office would delay matters, I am of opinion that it would, at any rate for the first year or so, be simpler to rent a building at approximately Rs. 50 per mensem. An addition of Rs. 600 should therefore be made to the above estimate, and out of this sum the Madras Government would no doubt be willing to pay a ½rd share. A small initial outlay will also be probably required for office furniture and equipment. It will be seen therefore that the total charges to be met on behalf of the Civil and Military Station and Coorg will amount to about Rs. 10,100. I am of opinion that this sum should be equally divided between the Assigned Tract Revenues and Imperial Revenues. The sum therefore to be provided in future budgets of the Assigned Tract and of Coorg will be Rs. 5,000 in each case, while in the pro forma accounts of the former tract a small additional amount of Rs. 500 may, as now, be debited on account of the cost of supervision by the Director of Public Instruction in Madras.

6. I have the honour to request that the Government of India may be pleased to pass early orders on the above proposals. They appear to me to meet a need which is rendered the more urgent by the fact that the Government of India are annually placing large sums at the disposal of Local Governments and Administrations for the purpose of advancing the cause of education throughout India. A copy of this letter is being forwarded to the Madras Government for information.
