M A D R A S.

Sir,

(B) Paragraph 4 note (2) of the Special Test Notification debars from the Criminal Judicial test all candidates who have not either passed the F.A. or B.A. examination of the University or obtained a Diploma in Agriculture or Commerce. I have the honour to submit for the favourable consideration of Government a request that the rule may, as a special case, be relaxed in favour of R. Srinivasa Varada Aiyangar, a clerk in my Office, and that he may be permitted to appear for the Criminal test, Lower Grade at the ensuing examination in October next.

2. The clerk, whose pay is Rs. 45 per mensem, has passed the Matriculation and Upper Secondary examinations, as well as the Revenue, Account, and Translation tests; he has also passed some of the Commercial tests. During his seven years service he has acquitted himself with special credit in every branch of work in which he has been employed. He served under me when I was on Special duty in 1911-12, in connection with the Coronation Durbar and I then placed on record my opinion of the excellence of his work. He is eligible for appointment as a Taluk Head Accountant but there, as matters now stand, his promotion in the Executive line must end as without the Criminal test he is not qualified for a Sub Magistrate's place. I consider that it would be a misfortune if his capacity and large general experience were lost to the higher grades of the service; I also think that the good-work which he has consistently done merits the special encouragement for which I now venture to ask.

3. It would be open to the clerk to appear for the Commercial tests in April next and, if, as would doubtless be the case, he obtained a Diploma to present himself later for the Criminal test: but, though the regulations permit this expedient, it seems unprofitable to require him to spend, in studying subjects for which he will have no future use, time which would be better employed on Government work. In these circumstances I would strongly commend his case to Government and request that the orders, if favourable, may be communicated to me as early as possible so that the clerk may be in time to submit his application for examination before the end of July.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Andruapp
Collector.
