Sir,

In submitting herewith copy of a petition received from M.R.Ry. C. V. Krishna Row, permanent Treasurer of my office on Rs. 70 plus 15, I beg to report that, as will be seen from the copies of his testimonials enclosed, his work and conduct have been always satisfactory throughout his long service extending over a period of 28 years. Before he was appointed Treasurer of my office in the beginning of last year, he was Head Accountant, Coonoor taluk office for nearly 10 years. I have no doubt that the experience and knowledge in account matters gained by him in this post, will be of much benefit to him and to Government, if he can be appointed as Head Accountant in the Treasury branch of my office. There is no other officer in this district as competent as he to fill the post. He is not however qualified for the post, though he is competent. I therefore beg to recommend that the Government may be pleased to exempt him from passing the Account Test, so that he may be appointed in due course to the post to which he aspires. In case the Government cannot see their way to grant this exemption, I recommend that he may be given permission for 2 years to appear for the Account Test.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

J. C. Collector.

To

The Collector of the Nilgiris.

Through the Try. Dy. Collector and Huzur Sheristadar.

The humble petition of C. V. Krishna Rao, Treasurer, Collector's office, the Nilgiris, respectfully sheweth:-

That your humble petitioner appeared for and passed

| (3) Translation Test Lower. | | |

- mission granted to him in G.O.No. 249 dated 29th April 1897 Educational Department.

That under G.O.No. 402 dated 13th June 1905 Edl., ^(K) your petitioner was allowed to appear for the Account Test Higher Grade at the examinations held in October 1905 and 1906, but he received this order only on 27th June 1905. Owing to this reason and to the fact that his brother died just then, he was prevented from appearing for the test in 1905.
In 1906, he appeared for the test with the necessary heavy work of the Coonoor Treasury, but unfortunately failed.

That your petitioner's ambition is to get the English Head Accountant's post which is only next in grade to his present post, after 28 years' hard and uniformly approved service on the Hills almost the whole of which has been such as to eminently qualify him for the post which he aspires for (in testimony whereof petitioner beg to enclose copies of testimonials) so as to enable your humble petitioner to draw a pretty decent pension to support him in old age.

That your petitioner held the Taluk Head Accountant's post at Coonoor for nearly ten years, where the transactions are heavy and gained account experience, which may help him in getting through this examination (Account Test) and which may be of immense use to him if appointed as Head Accountant.

It is perhaps needless to submit that this is not an unreasonable ambition at all for one who is almost on the verge of retirement being 48 years old now, the whole serviceable portion of which has been dedicated to service under Government. It may not be presumptuous to remind your honour that hard working and honest servants who are prepared to spend their live service on the Hills and who have acquired the requisite qualifications are not too many and that public interests will be served by providing facilities for such men if they offer themselves.

In these circumstances the petitioner most humbly requests that the benign Government may be graciously pleased to exempt him from the Account Test to qualify him for the post of English Head Accountant.

If however the petitioner's humble prayer does not meet with favourable response, the petitioner requests that you may be pleased to secure for him permission to appear for the examination. Under G.O.No. 896 Edl. dated 9th October 1912 both the Account Tests - Higher and Lower grades - have been amalgamated and a single test called the Account Test with permission to answer the paper with books has been substituted. This new test has been prescribed as the qualification for the English Head Accountant's post, in place of the old Account Test higher.

The petitioner having already passed the lower, is hopeful of passing the new test now that use of books is allowed in answering questions.

And the petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

Ootacamund, 17th June 13. Sd/- C.V.Krishna Rao.

2. This is a special case, and treatment. I very strongly, beg to recommend the case of the Head Accountant for the favourable consideration of the Superior Officers.

3. It is hardly necessary to repeat that the transactions in this Sub-Treasury are very heavy and that the responsibilities attaching to the officers in charge of it are very great. Comparing this Sub-Treasury with the Sub-Treasuries in the plain districts may not be correct and I make bold to submit that the transactions here may, without any fear of contradiction, be placed on par with those of a Huzur Treasury. The payment to gazetted officers, who visit this station (Sanatorium) during the season and who are not a few in number and payments to the Cordite Factory and Pasture Institute etc., render the work very exacting. To be brief, I beg leave to say that I endorse every line in this application.
