Station Ootacamund, Dated the 25th June 1913.

From (Name) Lieut. Col. R. J. Macnamara, M.D., I.M.S., (Designation) Inspector-General of Prisons.

To the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras

Sir,

Referring to para 2 of G.O., No. 795, Judicial dated 28th April 1913, I have the honour to state that Juvenile Allempelli Appellesami was originally sentenced to 3 - months rigorous imprisonment, was subsequently ordered to be kept in the Reformatory School for 5 years and is now detained in the Leper Annexe at Salem for treatment. I beg to enquire for what period the boy is to be -- -- detained in the Central Jail, Salem, and whether he is to be admitted to the benefits of the Remission system in case his detention extends to a year or more. The -- Government Order is silent on this point. The Leper Annexe is not a Reformatory School and it is therefore thought that the Reformatory Schools Act does not apply.

As

As the original sentence is only 3 months, it is not understood how the boy's detention at Salem can exceed this period, except on the supposition that a person can be detained in Jail as a convict under an executive order.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Reverend

Lieut.Col.I.M.S.,

Inspector-General of Prisons.

para 2 of the letter from the Ed of India Educational Dept, No 786 of 15-12-1905 in which they were of opinion that there was no great likelihood of the legality of the proceedings being adversely ^{pupils} scrutinised in cases where ^{pupils} ~~lepers~~ are transferred from the Reformatory School to the Leper Asylum.

2. The JS. may be informed that the boy should be detained in the Leper annexe for the unexpired portion of the term for which he was ordered to be kept in the Reformatory School and that he may be admitted to the benefits of the Remission System. A draft order is submitted which may issue with the Concurrence of the Edl Dept.

I don't see how the remission system can be held to be applicable, as he is not a prisoner as defined in Ch. XXII.

I suppose he must be detained for the ~~length of~~ period that he would have spent in the Reformatory School, as there is nothing else to fix his detention by. There are admittedly no rules or provisions of law governing the case.

Educational Dept.

I think it wd. be very hard on the wretched boy whose original sentence was three months, to keep him in jail for five years because he happens to be a leper. Five years in the Reformatory School is one thing; five years in a leper annex to a Central Jail is quite another. Unless there is strong reason to suppose that his treatment in the leper Annex (he is presumably being treated there) is likely to result in permanent good, I wd. let him out unconditionally under sec. 14 of the Reformatory Schools Act. He has been in jail or at the School ever since 7.10.10.

Trial Report

D.S.

There appears to be no guarantee that the juvenile would be permanently benefited by his detention in the Lepor Annex. If the proposal of the Educational Department to release him under Sec 14 of the Reformatory Schools Act ^{is accepted} the file may, it is submitted, be forwarded to that Dept for the issue of necessary orders.

I do not believe we have any authority to keep the boy in jail and he must be released at once.
