I have the honour to request that Government granted, as a special case in G.O. No. 237 H.S. dated avoided if such applications

B. S. Venkateshkrishna Das on whose behalf the application for exemption from examination rules is made belongs to the Backward class of Shepherds. In 1908 exemption was granted to him to appear for the criminal Judicial test, lower grade, mainly on the ground that he belonged to the Shepherds class. The present application may, it is submitted, be supported in this Dept.

2 With reference to the Edl ^{W.S.S} note in the previous page attention is directed to para 2 of G.O. No 287 Edl of 8.5.1856 and para 4 (g) of the B.S. No 232 of 26.6.1856 recorded in G.O. No 3214 Revd of 8.8.1856. It will be seen therefore that applications for exemptions from examination rules are intended to be dealt with primarily in the Edl Dept. Formerly the Edl Dept used to consult the administrative Dept concerned only in cases where their opinion was considered necessary. For instances please see the G.O. (ed ^{with} white tape) instances in which W.O. references were not made to the administrative Opls will be found in the bundle of 80s tied ^{with} red tape. Latterly it has become the practice to send ^{all} applications for exemption to the administrative departments concerned for remarks in the first instance. Orders based on the recommendations of the administrative Opls issue in the Ed. H. No doubt if the Ed. H. S's suggestion be adopted some of the W.O. referees may be avoided. But orders refusing exemption from examination rules will have to be issued in the administrative Opls. This procedure will not, it is submitted, ensure uniformity in dealing with questions of exemptions. The W.O. referees can be minimised if the administrative departments are consulted only whenever their opinion is considered necessary as was done formerly. The Ed. H. will, it is presumed, consult the other administrative Opls of the Secretariat on the question.

Supers should only be sent in the Dept which makes the order. is that in this case. Further Ed. H. must deal with all questions of interpretation of the notes. I am keen to change the procedure with
