A draft telegram is submitted for approval. If approved, it may be sent to Financial for acceptance.
Subject to approval it has been put in in the draft that the Govt.
expect to spend fully both the Durbar grant of eight lakhs and ^{and} ~~the~~ Imperial grant that may be sanctioned for elementary school buildings. The latter sum has only to be distributed among local boards. As regards however the former,
the D.P.I. has in his budget
^{and in subsequent correspondence.}
provided for an expenditure of 8.66 lakhs against the Durbar
grants as shown below:—

The D.P. I has since reported that to the above has to be added Rs 4.35 for under item (iii) for petty construction and repairs to training schools to accommodate the new batches of students to be trained.

Though the school at Vijayapatam ~~was~~ not to be opened in the current year and though there might be a little saving (of some Rs 2000) under scholarships, it is not likely that the total expenditure will fall below 8 lakhs. An assurance to this effect from the D.P. I may also perhaps be necessary before the reply to India is sent.

My dear Davidson,

I am desired to write about my two telegrams, 50 C.D. of the 11th and 52 C.D. of the 13th January. We were anxious to give you an additional three lakhs thirty-one thousand for the erection of primary schools. The only way by which we could do it was to hand over some money which had been assigned to another province but the allotment for budget purposes and the expenditure of which seemed problematical in the present year. We proposed to make good this money to the other province from any grants coming to us in future. I accordingly sent my telegram of the 11th. But for budget purposes the sum out of which it was proposed to give the Government of Madras this money had already been assigned on revision to the Local Government concerned through the land revenue head. The fact that this had been done was duly notified to this department but the papers did not reach me in time to stop my telegram of the 11th. Since I became aware of the facts, I telegraphed on Monday cancelling it.

I am to apologise for this incident. But it will be seen that we have tried to do our best to provide the Government of Madras with funds and when the former of the two telegrams was despatched we had every reason for supposing that those funds were available.
