(Designation) Director of Public Instruction.

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras,
EDUCATIONAL Local and Municipal Department.
(Through the Accountant-General)

Sir,

In G.O.No. 310 Educational, dated 11th April 1912, sanction was accorded to the employment of an additional assistant - in the second class of the subordinate collegiate service, for the Sanskrit department in the Presidency College. In connection with the above proposal the Professor of Sanskrit stated that, including the work of the B.A. Honours class - which then contained only 5 students, and the Oriental Manuscript Library, provision had to be made for the conduct of 59 hours work a week and that two years hence when all the three Honour classes in Sanskrit might be working provision would would have to be made for 83 hours lecturing and supervision work when it would be necessary to appoint four assistants for the department. But the Principal observed that so many as four assistants were not necessary, that Honours students need not be always under the personal supervision of a member of the staff and that the time-table might be so arranged that two or even three classes might be under the supervision of a single member of the staff during some hours of the week and he accordingly recommended the employment of only one additional assistant which was sanctioned.

2 The Professor now proposes a further strengthening of the staff of the Sanskrit Department by the employment of one assistant Professor and a pandit. He states that the teaching work of the department requires in addition to the pandits - that may be wanted, three English knowing specialists in - Sanskrit-one a specialist in literary and linguistic studies, another a student of European Philosophy and a specialist in Indian Philosophic systems and the related religious literature, and a third a specialist in Vedic literature in comparative mythology and in comparative religion. As regards the library work to be done by the classes, the Professor states that no account need be taken of the Intermediate Classes as the work is comparatively light ~~either to the teacher or to the taught~~ ~~and that the work of supervision during the library hour is~~ ~~certain~~ but that ^{as} in the case of the B.A. Honours classes the work cannot be made light either to the teacher or to the taught, and that the work of supervision during the library hour is certain to prove heavy enough to deserve to be taken into serious consideration. He calculates the total work to be done in the department to be 60 hours of teaching and 12 hours of supervision over ^{the} library work of the B.A. Honours - classes. Taking 12 hours a week as the average of teaching work per lecturer Rao Bahadur Rangachariar considers that five lecturers lecturers are required and that of these the Professor and two of his assistants should be English knowing Sanskritists and the remaining two pandits. The distribution of work will then be as shewn below:

Professor 10 hours
Junior Professor 12 hours.
Assistant Professor 12 hours.
2 Pandits 13 hours each.

60 hours teaching work
besides 13 hours
supernumerary

As the existing staff consists of one assistant Professor and a Pandit besides the Professor, Rao Bahadur Rangachariar requests sanction for the employment of a junior Professor on Rs. 200/- and a pandit.

3 The Principal, in submitting the proposal, states that though he recognizes the necessity for strengthening the staff if the Honours classes are to receive adequate attention, he cannot think that so many as five teachers are required considering the numbers under instruction which are reported to be 77 as shewn below:

BA	{	V year Honours class (taking branch VIII)---	5	5
		IV year Honours class	6	8
		III	5	5
Intermediate	{	II	2	12
		I	4
		II	30
			25
			77

He recognizes, however, that in view of the large number of classes among which the comparatively few students are distributed extra assistance is necessary and recommends the employment of an additional assistant Professor in Sanskrit in the cadre of the Subordinate Educational service Collegiate branch.

4 I agree with the Principal, but consider that until it is known more precisely how far the University will supplement College teaching in Oriental studies the post to be created should be of a temporary nature. I have the honour accordingly to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the employment for a period of one year from 1st October 1913 of an additional assistant Professor, on Rs. 100/- per mensem for the Sanskrit department of the College.

5 The charge during the current year will be ~~XXXXXXX~~ Rs. 500/- and I beg to submit the necessary reappropriation statement for favour of sanction.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. K. S. S. S.

known more precisely how far the University will supplement College teaching in Oriental Studies the post to be created should be of a temporary nature and accordingly recommends the employment of an addl assistant on Rs 100 for a period of one year. The reference here is apparently to the question of the development of the development of the study upon modern lines of the languages of India and especially of South India for ^{which} a sum of Rs 36,000 out of the recurring of Imperial grant of Rs 65,000 to the University has been assigned—
