G.O. No. 740, Educational, dated 4th November 1908.

ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning the institution of a separate examination in school management and in the art of teaching for teachers in European schools to qualify themselves for teachers' certificates.

II

Letter—from the Hon'ble Sir ALFRED GIBBS BOURNE, D.Sc., F.R.S., K.C.I.E.,
Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—the 1st November 1913.

No.—R.C. 9109.

When proposals were originally submitted for an examination for teachers' certificates under the Code of Regulations for European Schools, it was thought convenient to hold it at the same time as the examination for teachers' certificates under the Madras Educational Rules and this was approved in G.O. No. 740, Educational, dated 4th November 1908. The school year for non-European schools, including training schools, is however now July to April and the teachers' certificate examinations under the Madras Educational Rules are consequently held in April. Since however the school year for European schools continues to run from January to December, April is not a convenient time for their teachers' examination.

I have the honour therefore to request permission to hold the examination from this year in December on days fixed by the Inspector of European and Training Schools.

Order—No. 1018, Educational, dated 10th November 1913.

The Government sanction the proposal of the Director of Public Instruction to hold the examination for teachers' certificates under the Code of Regulations for European Schools in the month of December with effect from this year.
