Attention is requested to the telephonic message from the Deputy Registrar which ~~states~~ ^{specifies} the details of the catalogues required. The Sectt library is not a public library ~~and as~~ ^{but there seems no objection to supplying a copy of it} ~~such it seems unnecessary to supply a catalogue~~ ^{if Advt Secy. agrees}. The other three libraries (Commemara Public library, the Oriental manuscripts library and the Madras University library) referred to in the message are under the Educational Deptt to whom the file may be transferred for necessary action. [The govt. have no control over the University library and the High Court have perhaps to apply to the Regt. of the University for a copy of its catalogue. Edl. will no doubt advise the High Court on this matter.]

For the Assistant Secretary

Please see note at A on page 1 ante. It is true that the Secretariat Library is not a Public Library. But it is submitted ^{that} it is usual to send ^{books} from that library to heads of departments & officers for bona fide public use. The intention of the High Court apparently is to obtain from ^{the Secretariat} that library any book which is not available in its ^{own} library. As the present request of the High Court is only with a view to expedite Govt. work, it is submitted, there appears to be no objection to the Secretariat Library Catalogue being supplied to the High Court. For orders.

The Principal Librarian, Commemara Public Library, who is also ex officio Chairman of the University Library Committee, may be requested to supply the High Court with copies of the catalogues of books in those libraries.

2. The Catalogues of the Good Oriental Manuscripts Library are only catalogues of manuscripts in Sanskrit and other Dravidian languages ^{They may also} ~~which are~~ ^{be of} ~~some~~ ^{use} to the High Court ^{for} ~~for~~ ^{purposes of reference}. ~~The point may perhaps be brought to the notice of the High Court, that the same may be asked by the High Court, whether the High Court is not aware that these catalogues are of great value to the High Court Library.~~

~~A draft order is submitted for approval.~~
