To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Local and Municipal Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that Mr. T. O. Hodges the Inspector of Schools, 7th Circle, who was transferred to the Inspectorate on the 16th November 1910 and should have passed in a second Vernacular in the examination held in January 1913 at the latest according to Rule 5 of the rules prescribed for the study of oriental languages by European and Eurasian officers of Government, has not yet satisfied this condition. He did not appear for the examination held in July last owing, it is alleged, to insufficient preparation. I beg to suggest that if he fails to pass the test in

2. I beg also to report that Mr. W. E. Smith, Professor of Chemistry, Presidency College, has again failed to pass the Compulsory Vernacular test held in July last. He sat for the first paper but not having answered it satisfactorily he withdrew from the <sup>rest of the</sup> examination.

Educational Dept.

Mr. Hodges has passed the compulsory vernacular test (in Tamil) which all the members of the Indian Educational Service are required to pass. As he is now an Inspector of Schools, he must also pass the test in a second language. This he should have passed in January last at the latest, as he was transferred to the Inspectorate on the 16-11-10. Please <sup>see</sup> rule 5 of the rules for the study of Oriental languages on page 8 of G.O. 738 Edl., dated 14-12-10. As Mr. Hodges has not passed in a second vernacular yet, the Director suggests that his increments be stopped if he fails to pass the test in January next. The Director's recommendation may it is submitted be accepted and Mr. Hodges warned accordingly. For a precedent please see G.O. No. 835 Edl., dated 27th November 1911 and N<sup>o</sup> 897-D. of 26.9.13.

2. Mr. Smith has not passed the compulsory vernacular test yet. He was appointed to the Indian Educational Service <sup>the 5th of</sup> on October 1907 and he should have passed the test in January 1910 at the latest. Mr. Smith was warned in G.O. No.

Civil list.

increments would be stopped. His increments (K) have accordingly been stopped and he is now drawing Rs.700 only; although he should have drawn Rs.750 from the 5th October 1912 and Rs.800 from the 5th October 1913. Thus he is now losing Rs.100 a month. Please see rule 12 on page 9 (N) of G.O.No.738 dated 14th December 1910, which prescribes the penalty for not passing the examination. In the notes on page 3 of notes with (XIII) G.O.No.411 Educational, dated 29th June 1911, it has been decided that withholding of increments until the passing of the examination should be sufficient. Mr.Smith is now undergoing sufficient punishment for his failure. The Director suggests no further punishment in his case. In view of the importance attached by the Government of India to this matter and as a further incentive to Mr.Smith to pass the examination, it is for consideration whether the D.P.I. may be asked to obtain and submit his explanation for failure to pass the test.
