OFFICE OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, MADRAS,

Fort St. George, the 16 of October 1913

No. G.A.56-13379

From

N. N. PADGETT, Esq.,

ASSISTANT ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL,

To

The Hon' ble Sir A. G. Bourne, K.C.I.E.,

Director of Public Instruction,

Enclosures.

SIR,

In reply to your D.O. dated 12th October 1913, I have the honour to state as follows:-

2. The date of birth as recorded in the History of Services of Gazetted officers is 1859, and under the rule in item (3), article 910, Madras Supplement to the Civil Service Regulations, 1st July 1859 will be assumed as the date of your birth. This date cannot be altered except upon orders of the Local Government (vide article 55(1), Civil Account Code, Vol.I).

3. If the 1st July 1859 be taken as the date of your birth, the combined privilege leave and special leave you propose to take prior to retirement should terminate on the 1st July 1914 (article 14, Civil Service Regulations). You may in that case take privilege leave for 2 months and 10 days commencing from 1st January 1914 and special leave on urgent private affairs for 3 months and 20 days in continuation and retire from service on expiry of the combined leave without returning to duty. Article 301 would be inoperative in this case.

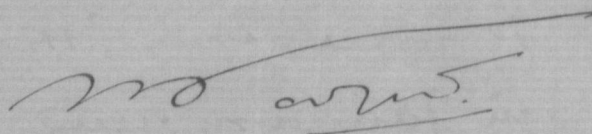

4. If Government permit the alteration in the date of your birth and the same be taken as 8th August 1859, as now stated by you, you will, on the 8th February 1914, be eligible for privilege leave for 2 months and 14 days and special leave for 3 months and 17 days in continuation, as also retire on the expiry of the leave and without having to return to duty. Neither in this case would article 301 apply.

5. If, however, the combined leave could be taken only in March 1914 or August 1914, your retention in service beyond the 1st July 1914 or 8th August 1914, as the case may be, will need to be sanctioned by Government and the provisions of the rule in the note to article 301(b), Civil Service Regulations, will need to be enforced and you should return to duty on the expiry of the leave, unless your case is brought under the exception specified therein.

6. On the 1st March 1914, the amount of privilege leave at your credit will be 2 months and 16 days, while on the 4th August 1914, it will be three months.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Asstt. Accountant-General.

It would be most inconvenient for him to have leave so soon. Please examine & see what can be done.

It is presumed that Sir Alfred Bourne's date of birth should be taken as 1st July 1859. He will attain his fifty-fifth year on the 30th June 1914.

2. Mr. Stone returns from leave only on 21st February 1914. As observed by the Secretary, it may be inconvenient to be without Sir Alfred Bourne or Mr. Stone from 1st January to 21st February 1914. The meeting of the Finance Committee will come off in January; and last year Sir Alfred Bourne was invited to be present at the meeting when the educational portion of the budget was under consideration. The Public Service Commission opens its sittings in Madras in the first week of February; and if Sir Alfred Bourne, whose name has been suggested for co-opted membership, agrees to remain here for the sittings, he will have to spend a large portion of his leave in Madras. It therefore seems desirable to refuse him the leave which he applies for from 1st January 1914.

3. This course will itself furnish a solution ~~out~~ of the question. This point was already referred to in the papers ~~at~~ at slip XI in the linked file. Para. 5 of the ~~Asst~~ Assistant Account. General's letter confirms the view. The course then to be followed appears to be

- (i) to refuse leave to Sir Alfred Bourne from 1st January 1914, owing to exigent ^{of public service,}
- (ii) to allow him to take the leave (combined for six months) from 1st March 1914 or so,
- (iii) to extend Sir Alfred Bourne's service by two months, or such corresponding period, from 28th 1st July 1914

* If the course above suggested is acceptable to Sir Alfred Bourne & to Govt., the A.C. may be asked to state definitely whether it may be adopted.

Will Sir A. Borne say if he has any objection to the course above proposed?

Also whether he will ~~be~~ have any objection to taking his leave from the end of March, so that he may be here through the Budget Discussions? Mr. Stone is quite new to the matter at the most important part of the year

A.A. No. 185 of 3-11-13.

It would seem most convenient that I should be required to wait until Mr Stone returns i.e. 21st February.

I hope it will not be considered necessary that I should wait until the end of March. Mr Stone is not new to the work having acted for a year and so far as anything connected with the Budget is concerned he will leave the spending of the money (if appointed to succeed me) and be therefore the person most

ASU 2.10.13

Will accountant - General please say if there is any objection to the course proposed in paras. 2 & 3 of the office note on p. 5 above? The case is not affected by the fact that the precise date from which Sir A. Bonner has to be granted leave - whether from 21st February or end of March - is not yet settled.

There is no audit objection to the course proposed in para 3 on page 5 of the Secretariat notes being adopted, whether the leave be taken in February or March 1914.

To comply with account rules, Sir Alfred Bonner may be formally request the leave from 1st January for which he asks on p. 1; may be granted six months combined privilege leave & special leave from such date after Mr. Stone's return from leave (21st Feb. 1914) as his Excellency pleases; & be granted an extension of service after 1st July 1914 for such period as will make six months from the date on which the six months' leave is granted.

2. The important point is whether Sir A. Borne should be granted the six months' leave from the date of Mr. Stone's return or asked to stay on until the Budget meeting, which begins on Friday March 13th, is over.

W.F.14/11

Sir A. Borne may have leave from the date of Mr. Stone's return.

art. 233 (iv) — Combined leave should be for not less than six months.

art. 301 (b) — After 55 years, an officer may be granted (a) privilege, (b) sp. leave or (c) extraordinary leave without allowances; total under last two heads not to exceed six months in all.

Note to do — If refused leave after 54 years, the officer ^{who has been} granted leave after completion of service, need not necessarily return to duty after expiry; otherwise he should.

Sir Alfred Bourne's ~~probable~~ term may be extended after 7th August 1914 for such period as may be necessary to retain him until Mr. Stone's return from leave. In that case the leave that should be granted to him should be combined privilege leave & special leave. Dr. Bourne has not had special leave till now & he can accordingly have leave allowance under art. 318 (a). He has had total fulsome of 4-7-9 till now against the maximum of six years.
