Sir,

The Headmistress of the Government Girls' School, Puthur, South Canara, has been living till now free of rent in a small outhouse in the school compound. This

The expediency of providing free quarters for schoolmistresses has been recognized by the Govt of India, and in the case of the new girls' school at Nagapattinam, house rent also has been given in lieu of free quarters. There appears to be ~~no~~ therefore no obligation to the headmistress in the present case being exempted from payment of rent for her residential quarters situated in the compound of the school.
