Station M a d r a s, Dated the 12th November 1913.

From (Name) The Hon'ble Sir Alfred Gibbs Bourne, D.Sc., F.R.S., K.C.I.E.,

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction,

M a d r a s.

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational ~~Local and Municipal~~ Department.

S i r,

In their order No. 603 Mis. Educational, dated 27th June 1913 Government sanctioned the re-employment for a period of six months from the date of reopening of the Law College of a Special Lecturer on Rs. 250/- and appointed M.R.Ry. K.
Yegnanarayana Adiga Avargal to the post. The Acting Principal reports that the term of office of the Special Lecturer will expire by 11th January next, the latter having joined duty on 12th July 1913, and recommends the continuance of the temporary appointment until 30th April 1914, on the ground that the subjects on which the Special Lecturer is now engaged in teaching will run on until the close of the spring term of 1914 and that it would be a distinct advantage to the students to have the same subjects handled by the same lecturer for the whole period. Seeing that the re-organization of the college has been deferred indefinitely, the Principal's proposal appears to me to be reasonable and I have therefore the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the continuance of the Special Lecturer's post up to 30th April 1914 and for the retention of M.R.Ry. Yegnanarayana Adiga's services until that date.

2. The additional expenditure involved by this proposal will, during the current year, amount to about Rs. 415/- which can be met from savings under salaries in the Budget Estimates of the College for the current year. For the amount required for the next year, I shall submit, if necessary, a re-appropriation statement on receipt of the Civil Budget Estimates for that year.

The total extra cost involved is Rs 911, of which Rs 411⁸ will be incurred in 1913-14, and Rs 500 in 1914-15. The D.P.G. has pointed out the source from which the extra charge during the current year can be met. In regard to charges which will be due in the next year, the D.P.G. states that he will forward a reappropriation statement later on. Submitted that as the budget estimate for 1914-15 under the head "22-Education" has not yet been fixed, the procedure at K is not really necessary, and the necessary provision may be made in the next year's budget. The Educational Dept. may be requested to inform the D.P.G. accordingly. The draft order may otherwise be accepted.
