Resolution
Reference

In G.O. Mis. No. 635 Revenue, dated 3rd March 1913, M.R.Ry. 1.
Radhakrishna Ayyar, Sub-Inspector, 1st grade, was, along with three others, given an extension of time to pass Test E in a second vernacular till July 1913. He failed to pass the Test at the examination held in July last and is now liable to reduction.
He now states that he is unable to pass the Test on account of old age (47 years on 1st April 1913) and weak memory though he has been making bona fide attempts to pass the Test. He adds that he has put in 24 years' service in the Department and that he intends retiring in 2 or 3 years but that, if he is reduced now on account of his failure to pass the Test, his pension will be affected. He requests that he may be exempted from passing the Test and the local officers support the request. The Board accepts their recommendation and requests that Government will be pleased to exempt the Sub-Inspector, as a special case, from passing Test B in a second language.
