on Rs 35 per mensem and for promotion to higher posts subsequently. It is for consideration whether the Surgeon-General's recommendation should be accepted. ^{whether the exemption 8K helms 2 and 35} The Public Dept may be consulted too.

The question for consideration is whether it will be in the interest of the Public Service to promote the clerk to posts carrying salaries of above Rs 30 p.m. — i.e., whether he is capable of serving in the office at least equally well as, if not better than, passed Candidates. Attention is invited to Surgeon-General Benson's opinion regarding the clerk's abolition in Column 8 & 9 of the Statement on p. 1 of fo no. 544 Edcl of 13.9.10, there was stated that the latter was far superior to certain other clerks below him in the office who were matriculated. He is strongly recommended for the exemption also on the present occasion by the S. A. The clerk is now 32 yrs old and if the proposed exemption is not granted he may have to remain on the present pay - Rs 30 p.m. - till he retires from service - i.e., for 23 years more in the natural course of service. For orders whether in these circumstances the S. A.'s recommendation will be accepted. If the exemption proposed is limited to Rs 35 p.m. as suggested in the Educational Deptt. note above, it appears that the S. A. will again come up to Govt. within a short time for sanction to promote the clerk to posts carrying still higher pay. Submitted for order.

The maximum pay to which the clerk can rise in the S.A. office is Rs 120, excluding the appointment of manager, the pay of which is Rs 200 p.m. & which is usually filled by an outsider.

I think we may support a general exemption, if only on the ground that he is a Mahammad.

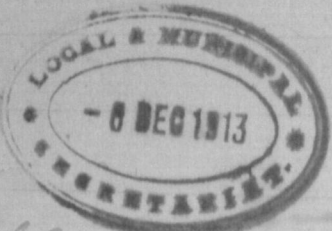

Very much in his able -
