Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 22nd ultimo, I am directed by the Secretary of State for India to inform you that you will be placed on deputation for the purposes of consultation in connection with the purchase of certain apparatus and machinery for the use of the College of Engineering, Madras.

Your deputation will commence on the 15th instant, and it is hoped that it will be possible to bring it to an end within two months.

During it, you will receive two-thirds of your Indian pay, and any travelling expenses you may be called upon to incur will be refunded to you in accordance with the rules printed on the back of the enclosed travelling bill form.

I am to request that you will call on the Superintendent of the India Store Depot on Monday next, the 15th instant.

I am, etc.,

(Sd). J. E. Ferard.
