From E. G. Lazarus,

New Moston,
Manchester.

To The Chief Secretary,
The Government of Madras,
M a d r a s .

Dear Sir,

I shall be much obliged if you could see your way to granting me a Scholarship to enable me to study for a year or two, according to your discretion, at one of the Technical Institutions in this country, in London, Manchester, or Glasgow.

I came to England five years ago with a view to taking the Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering, attending evening classes and working for my support during the day. With what amount of success I discharged my latter duties you will see from the accompanying testimonials and also from the two letters accompanying my application. I have not been able to accomplish my original idea for want of time after strenuous work all day, working overtime very often for several weeks in succession.

It may perhaps not be possible with the funds at your disposal to enable me to study for the degree, which would take me from two to three years. In that case I should be glad of at least one year's training at any Institution. You are well aware of the cost of living and tuition in this country, so that it is needless for me to enlarge in this direction.

My long residence in this country - a period of over five years - and the personal testimonies of my Employers in this country as to my character and ability, would, I feel bold to say, commend themselves to you.

I am a son of Daniel Lazarus, B.A., who has worked for 37 years in the cause of education in the Vizagapatam District in charge of the late London Mission (now Canadian Baptist) High School, who, from the fact of being in Mission service, has not been able to afford to pay for my training. You are no doubt aware of the high standing the school has attained under his direction. He was awarded a Kaiser-i-Hind Medal for his services in the cause of education, at the time of the Coronation.

It is hardly necessary for me to mention that I shall endeavour to be a credit, in whatever station of life I may be placed, to the province in which I was born, and be one of those who would seek to promote its industrial development.

Thanking you in anticipation for the help you may be able to render.

I have the honour to be,
Dear Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

E. G. Lazarus.

TESTIMONIALS.

Christian College, Madras.

Madras Christian College,
6th April, 1908.

Mr. E. G. Lazarus was a student of this College for two years, 1901-1902. He completed the course for the First in Arts Examination of the Madras University and was sent up for the examination in 1902. His progress and conduct at College were satisfactory. He showed himself diligent and regular and in every way attentive to duty. I have every reason to believe him to be of excellent character and feel confident that he will prove himself worthy of trust in any position he may be qualified to occupy.

This is to certify that Mr. E. G. Lazarus has completed his term of 5 years as apprentice in our Electrical Department, having joined our service on the 15th February, 1903.

During this term he has given us great satisfaction in the discharge of all work entrusted to him, so that we have on several occasions given him an increased allowance over and above the usual apprentice's salary. We found him a most obliging Assistant, very steady and hard-working, and eager to learn the scientific side of his profession.

For this reason he has asked us for a recommendation to take to England, where he intends to further his technical knowledge. We wish him every success in his future career.

Dear Mr. Lazarus,

On behalf of my Directors and colleagues in this business, I am asking your acceptance of a small but very real token of our regard for you, and of our appreciation of your work which you have been instrumental in effecting in our works since you have been with us. When you came to us, you had many difficulties against you, but we are proud of the way you have overcome them and formulated a Department. We much regret you are obliged in justice to yourself to vacate.

We shall always remember you with more than respect and are losing a friend as well as an employé.

We trust you will prove this present move to be one that will meet and further your desire to become proficient in the Engineering profession.

And remain,

Yours faithfully,

This is to certify that E. G. Lazarus started in our employ as an improver in Switchboard erecting on October 4th, 1910. He was promoted to a position as draughtsman on tool work early in January, 1911, and he has also for a short period acted as charge hand in one of our departments on the night shift.

During the time he has been with me I have always found him most industrious and painstaking with any work that has been entrusted to him. He is leaving us of his own accord, and I shall always be pleased to hear of his advancement.

Dear Sir,

Our friend Mr. E. G. Lazarus tells us he is making application to you for a scholarship to enable him to pursue his studies at one of the Technical Institutions in London or the provinces.

We have known him for about 5 years and have been closely associated with him for two or three years, during which time he acted as Assistant Engineer at our factory and gave us entire satisfaction. We found him most capable and always able to overcome the difficult problems which so constantly arise in a manufacturing business. He quite transformed one of our departments, and we were exceedingly sorry to lose his services.

We do not hesitate to heartily recommend him as a man of excellent character and of much technical and business ability. We consider him worthy of a scholarship and are confident he will make splendid use of same. We shall have the greatest pleasure in giving you any further particulars you may require.

Dear Sir,

We understand that Mr Edmund G. Iazarus is making application to you for a scholarship to enable him to pursue his studies at one of the Technical Institutions in London or the provinces. We have very great pleasure in recommending him as a man of excellent character and having sound technical and business ability. He has been employed in our Drawing Office as Senior Draughtsman on electrical switchgear since March 1912 (being paid the standard rate of wages), and has given us entire satisfaction. We certainly think him worthy of a Scholarship, and believe that he will make a career for himself.

S i r,

In returning herewith the papers referred to me for remarks under Government Memo No. 2050 - 1 Edl., dated 7th July 1913, I have the honour to state that there is no information about Mr. Lazarus's educational attainments which would enable one to form an opinion as to the probability of his profiting by a scholarship. So far as I can see his work has been that of a superior mechanic and hardly engineering. In the absence of Mr. Tressler I consulted Dr. Marsden who says that Mr. Lazarus has been singularly fortunate in finding employment with firms of such high standing as those from which he submits testimonials and that his work must have been good to justify the

the opinions expressed. Dr. Marsden considers him to be a type of man worth helping in as much as he seems to possess initiative, organizing power and a capacity for work which should be most useful in an Indian business. At the same time he doubts whether he can hope to find in India such industrial employment as would justify the expenditure of further time in attending college courses.
