Extracts from the Resolutions passed at the 22nd
Kistna District Conference, 1913.

Resolution II. Free and Compulsory Primary Education.

As Primary education will not spread in the country, unless it be made free and compulsory, this Conference prays that the Government be pleased to legislate in the matter soon, and establish Primary schools, immediately, in all the villages, the population of which is over 500.

Resolution III. Andhrabhashi Vidyabhivruddhi Sangham.

This Conference, agreeing with the objects of the establishment, in Madras, of an Association called "Andhra Bhashi Vidyabhivruddhi Sangham", resolves that the people of this district do accord to it the encouragement that it deserves.

Resolution VII. Secondary Education for women.

This Conference solicits the Government to be pleased to establish, in the District, a high school for girls, and, a girls' Lower Secondary School, in each Taluc for the purposes of encouraging higher education of women, which is essential to the advancement of the country.

Resolution XI. National Education.

This Conference is firmly of opinion that,

(1) as the present system of education is far from conducive to the up-to-date needs of the Indians, it is necessary that they should bring into being a system that would adequately serve those needs, and establish schools therefor;

(2) the work of the Andhra Jatheeeya Kala Sala of Masulipatam, should be encouraged by the people of this District, both by rendering financial help and in other ways;

(3) and, as this is the only Educational institution in the District that gives technical education to its pupils, the Local Boards and Municipalities should also render it adequate financial aid.

Resolution XIV.

Encouragement of the Vernaculars. 4

(1) This Conference, while regretting the adoption, by the Madras Government and the Senate of the Madras University of methods calculated to impede the progress of the study of the Vernaculars, requests that the Government and the Senate will be pleased to make such study compulsory for the School Final, Intermediate, and Bachelor of Arts examinations.

(2) This Conference also urges that Telugu books written in impure and ungrammatical style ought not to be prescribed for study in Schools and Colleges.

Resolution XXII.

Vetapalem Girls' School.

This Conference resolves that the people of this District should render all necessary help for the success of the institution - called "Saradaniketanam", - a secondary girls' school to be established at Vetlapalem, Bapatla Taluc, Guntur District.

Note It does not seem necessary to acknowledge the receipt of these resolutions as they do not come from any representative line of the Association. Mr. P.C. would presumably have done it.

There is no action to be taken on any of the resolutions offered.
