To the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department

Madras.

Sir,

In submitting herewith the enclosed petition from Muhammed Ghouse Sahib, an acting clerk of my office, I have the honour to state that in their order No.130-M., dated 21st February 1908, Government have been pleased to exempt the petitioner from the Upper Secondary examination for employment as a clerk on Rs.15 per mensem. Since the grant of this concession Government have ruled that the qualifications laid down in Art. 1 of Public Service Notification do not apply to posts the salary of which do not exceed Rs.20 per mensem vide G.O.511-Educational, dated 9th July 1908. The petitioner is now a permanent clerk on Rs.20 in the Venkatagiri Deputy Tahsildar's Office and has been acting on Rs.20 in this office since the 20th

January

January 1913. The officers under whom the petitioner happened to work in recent years have spoken well of his work. He is a willing hand and comes of a respectable Muhammedan family and deserves to be exempted from the examination rules for clerical posts in taluk offices up to Rs. 30. and beg to recommend that he may be exempted accordingly. The usual application for exemption is enclosed.

I have the honour to be,

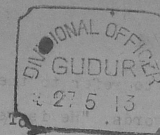

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

The Collector of Nellore.
Through the Deputy Tahsildar of Venkatagiri and the Revenue Divisional Officer, Gudur.
Most Honoured Sir,

The petitioner most humbly and respectfully begs to approach your honour with the following few lines with the firm conviction that the same will meet with favourable consideration.

The petitioner is a scion of a very ancient and respectable family of Nellore claiming his descent from one Sheik Abdulla whose valour and military talent in the capture of the fort of Mustafanagar once considered to be impregnable won for him the appreciation of Aurangzeb the Emperor of Delhi. In recognition of his services the emperor was pleased to confer on him a Jagir known as Kondapalli jagir and granted him a parvana, a translation of which is herewith submitted. But the family became a prey to adverse circumstances and time reduced the once illustrious family to the state in which it is found now. It fell to the lot of your humble petitioner to take care of the family which though in adverse circumstances could not divest itself of its inherent respectability consistent with its past greatness.

Being the only surviving member of the house with many pardanishi ladies to be cared for and many young men to be educated, the petitioner was forced to give up the prosecution of his studies and take up a humble position in the service of the Government. He was appointed as a muchli in the Divisional Office, Gudur on Rs. 10 on 9-5-1904. But by dint of labour and perseverance your humble petitioner succeeded in pleasing his superiors so well that he was from time to time kept on as acting clerk until at last on 15-11-1907 the Tahsildar of Rajur was pleased to recommend him for permanent exemption from examination rules. In the letter addressed to the Divisional

Divisional Officer, the Tahsildar was pleased to refer to the work and conduct of the petitioner in the following words. "He is well conversant with the office routine work and has been discharging the duties entrusted to him satisfactorily. He belongs to a respectable family of Mellore and deserves to be encouraged. His conduct is exemplary." The Divisional Officer in forwarding the letter was pleased to state to the following effect. "I strongly support the Tahsildar's recommendation to obtain permanent exemption in the case of this Muhammadan who is thoroughly well behaved and does his work satisfactorily. On the recommendation, R. F. Clegg, Esq., the then Collector, was pleased to write very strongly to the Government for his (petitioner) exemption and the Government in their G.O. No. 130-Misc., dated 21-2-1908 permanently exempted the petitioner from the Upper Secondary Examination. In pursuance of this Government Order, the petitioner was appointed as permanent clerk on Rs. 15 on 22-3-1908. Subsequently the petitioner's hard and honest work got for him an appointment on Rs. 17½ in 1911 and on Rs. 20 in 1912. But subsequent to his appointment on Rs. 20 as 3rd clerk, Rapur Taluk Office, the revision in the establishment of the Taluk Office came into force and all getting Rs. 16, 17½ and 20 got Rs. 20, 25 and 30. But the unfortunate petitioner, though already getting Rs. 20, got no promotion because the Government Order above referred to was literally interpreted and it was held that the petitioner was exempted for an appointment on Rs. 15 only. His claims were thus overlooked and all his juniors got over him.

4. The wording of the Government Order runs thus. "Muhammad Chouse will be permanently exempted from the Upper Secondary Examination for employment as clerk on Rs. 15 per mensem." If the Government Order is to be literally interpreted and that he should get only Rs. 15 and nothing more, then it is inexplicable how he could have been given Rs. 17½ and Rs. 20, On the authority of this Government Order. If the promotion was given because other unpassed men also got promotion in pursuance of a subsequent Government Order the exemption has no meaning and the petitioner is placed on a par with the unpassed men. The considerations that prompted his superiors to get an exemption for the petitioner were to secure for him all the privileges of a passed man and place him on terms of equality with passed men so that he may be given an opportunity of getting greater emoluments so that he may be given an opportunity of getting greater emoluments so as to enable him to keep up the respectability of his family and to educate the young men under his care.

5. Under these circumstances the petitioner humbly prays that your honour would be graciously pleased to get a permanent exemption from examination rules and thus protect a large family which having seen good days has now fallen a prey to evil times. For this act of kindness and charity the petitioner shall ever pray for your honour's long life and prosperity.

I beg to remain,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Mahomed Jumeer

Translation of the diploma granted to Sheik Abdulla under the royal seal of His Majesty Emperor Almgir, known as Aurangazeh, in token of the meritorious services rendered by him in capturing the Fort of Mustafanagar, otherwise called Kondapalli (Thou shalt obey thy God, thy Prophet and thy King) said to be written in the hand of His Majesty Emperor Aurangazeh.

12 Royal Seals.

Let the military servants (Naiks, Naths, Hazars and others) at the Fort of Mustafanagar, known as Kondapalli, who are ever desirous of the royal Mercy and Grace, understand that Mahabat Khan, brave and deserving of the royal favour, informed us that they (the military servants followed Shaik Abdulla and did their best in capturing the Fort of Mustafanagar. Their respects were paid in our Darbar. We are therefore pleased to present their chief with a horse and a Khilat (garb of honour). We hereby order that Mahabat Khan shall proceed thither to effect proper arrangements and that the military servants shall obey him in every respect. On the request of Mahabat Khan (he Sheik Abdulla) will be crowned with many an honour. We hereby make Sheik Abdulla the sole Master of the villages in his possession.
