Letter from Secretary to Government of Madras, Education Department, 13th August, No. 748. Equipment for Engineering College, Madras. Indent too late to be dealt with during leave of Cartwright. His leave cannot be extended. Do you recommend that he be placed on deputation? His presence here for two months would probably be very helpful. Please telegraph reply immediately, as his baggage must be shipped 15th September if he is to return within period of his leave.

SUBJECT.

Mr. Cartwright's deputation in England for consultation in connection with the purchase of apparatus electrical apparatus & machinery for the City of London.
The Principal of the Engineering College of the D.P.I. considered that it would be advantageous if Mr. Cartwright were consulted before the apparatus & machinery required for higher electrical engineering were purchased by the India office. The Govt. concurred in this view. The Secy of State also ^{has} considered that it "would probably be ^{very} helpful" if his assistance were secured. It may therefore be assumed that Mr. Cartwright's deputation for the purpose in England is necessary.

2. Mr. Cartwright's leave expires on 11th Oct. 1913. Apparently the consultation cannot be finished before the date of his starting back. Deputation, which will be governed by Art. 84-A & 85 of C.S.R. seems then to be the only course open.

3. The only point of doubt is about the period of deputation, which is suggested by the Secretary of State as ^{two} months. It is not clear why such a long time is needed for giving instructions. Obviously he will not be required to see the machinery actually purchased & handed over. Perhaps the Secy of State may be informed that the Govt. have no objection to Mr. Cartwright's deputation for such short period as may be found necessary for consultation purposes only.

4. There is no time to consult the Secy. Apparently there will not be any difficulty in sparing Mr. Cartwright for the additional period ~~needed~~ proposed. The P.W.D. have already made some temporary arrangement for conducting the classes during Mr. Cartwright's absence.

5. Financial may be asked whether they agree to the reply proposed in para. 3 above.

Note for the Secretary.

Mr. Cartwright, Professor of Mechanical Engineering, College of Engineering, Madras, was granted special leave on urgent private affairs for three months and 12 days in continuation of the summer vacation of the College. The leave expires on 11th Oct. 1913. Mr. K. V. Sankara Ayyar, Asst. Engr., is acting for Mr. Cartwright in the College.

2. From the papers with nos 846 & 847-93, it will be seen that Mr. Cartwright is to be placed on deputation for such period as may be necessary for consultation purposes with the India office in connection with the purchase of apparatus and machinery required for the College. It will then be necessary to retain Sankara Ayyar for a longer period than was originally contemplated. As the P.W.D. should know this, the papers may be sent to that dept. for perusal and return.
