To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

Sir,

With reference to para 1 of G. O. No. 715, Educational, dated 5th August 1913, I have the honour to state that 'Kammavars' or 'Kammavar Nayakars' are a class of cultivators in the Coimbatore, Tinnevelly, and probably Madura districts. They are akin to the Telugu 'Kammas' who are declared backward in the present list and doubtless need not be separately mentioned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. A. Arivu

For Director of Public Instruction.

As directed by the Honble Sir ~~St~~ the D.P.S. was requested to report what class was meant by the name "Kammavars". The Director replies that Kammavars or Kammavar Nayakans are a class of cultivators in the Coimbatore, Nilgiris and probably Madras districts. Kammavars or Kammavar Nayakans are not referred to as such in any of the Census reports, Mr. Thurston's "Castes and Tribes of Southern India" or other publications. The Director says that Kammavars are akin to the Telugu Kammamas. ~~Probably Kammamas~~ In the Census Statistics Kammavars are probably included among Kammamas. The proportion of ^{literate} ~~literate~~ per 1000 of the Kamma population is only 122.

 Sir H Stuart has directed that where a caste has two names (Saca rāstra and Pakuikaran) both should be given in their correct alphabetical position. On this principle it would seem desirable to include both "Kammavar" and "Kammavar Nagakar" in the list of backward classes. Under the re-
