Sir,

I have the honour to forward for your inspection 2 copies of an Object Lesson Card on the Silk Industry, which I have drawn up for use in schools.

You will doubtless be aware that Government is anxious to encourage the Silk Industry in India wherever this may be possible, and one of the best methods for popularising it amongst the people is through the children.

In Hungary, for instance, tons of silk-worm cocoons are now produced, and a flourishing Industry has been established, where a few years ago nothing of the kind existed, and it has been done almost entirely through the schools. The teachers have been given a short course which would be sufficient to enable them to give some instruction to the children, leaflets and wall cards have been distributed, and silk-worm eggs have been supplied to the children in places where the mulberry leaves can be obtained, and thus the Industry has received a great impetus and is now well established.

While the card has been prepared in English it will of course be easy to get it translated into other languages. We are supplying the cards at 8 annas each, plus carriage but could make a reduction of 10 per cent if ordered in quantities of not less than 100.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

F. del. Booth Tucker

C. No. 2604 From the Col. Booth Tucker No. dated 22-8-1913

SUBJECT

Object Lesson Card on the Silk Industry.

The card appears to be ~~very~~ suitable for use in schools. The D.P.O. may be asked to state whether a certain number of them may not be purchased and distributed among schools in this Presidency. The price is 8 as a card but if purchased in quantities of not less than 100 a reduction of 10 per cent is allowed.

To be of use in elementary schools in this Presidency, the card must be translated into Tamil, Telugu, ^{Malayalam,} ~~to~~ Canarese & Hindustani

In other words
it must be reprinted, & we have to do it MS.

We have next to no silk industry here & are not setting ourselves to encourage it. I don't think the cards will be of any use. No answer is necessary.
