SIR,

I have the honour to forward herewith for the Board's favourable consideration a petition received from A. Subba Rao, Customs Collector, Kottapattanam in which he requests that he may be permanently exempted from the examination rules. I saw him recently, examined his work closely and found it satisfactory.
He is intelligent and hard working and though his English is poor he deserves to get on. I impressed on him the necessity for an improvement in English and he promised to read in his spare time. I suggest that he may be given exemption for appointments up to Rs.30/- inclusive.

A formal application in the prescribed form is also enclosed.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H.H.Hood

Offg. Collector of Customs.

C.R. No. 1694

To

The COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS,

MADRAS.

Thro' The Proper Channel.

The humble petition of A. Subba Row Naidu, Assistant Superintendent of Sea Customs, Kothapatam Port.

Respected Sir,

The petitioner humbly begs to bring the following few lines of his grievances to the kind consideration and favorable orders of the Collector.

2. The petitioner had received education up to the then Matriculation standard but was not fortunate enough to pass through the University career.

3. The then circumstances made the petitioner to take up his chance in the Salt and Abkari. In consideration of the hard and arduous work of the petitioner and in consequence of the favourable recommendations of the then Benign Superiors, the Honourable Board was pleased to exempt the petitioner for acting temporary and Sub-Protam vacancies in the Sub-Inspector grade of the Salt and Abkari under B.P.R. Salt 3378 dated 8-11-1909.

4. The petitioner was subsequently tried as an Ag. Sub-Inspector in an important range and has proved a success.

5. In the separation of Customs from the Salt, the petitioner was ~~ever since~~ taken up by the former and ever since he was put in charge of small but important ports (with a few months' exception) and has proved ever a success as would be seen from the various remarks of the inspecting officers. In this connection the petitioner begs to submit that in 1911

6/ b
he was placed in charge of no less an important port than that of Copalpur (for a period of 3 months) wherein Assistant Inspectors were in charge and now Sub-Inspectors of higher grade and there too the petitioner discharged his duties to the entire satisfaction of the inspecting officers.

6. In the present incumbancy, the petitioner has collected a duty of Rs.19,000 in the year 1912 single handed and subjecting himself to the various scrutinizing inspections of the several officers. To quote an example, in July 1912 when the work was in full swing, Mr. Buckney, the Assistant Collector, Madras, inspected the port and his report bears a testimony of the petitioner's good work.

7. The petitioner has put in 14 years' service with an unblemish character excepting a few black marks in the beginning of his boy's service.

8. In spite of the long, faithful and good service of the petitioner, he is only drawing Rs.20/- per mensem which is quite insufficient to maintain his family.

9. If the petitioner had continued in the general line of the Salt Department, he would have had various occasions to act ^{as} Sub-Inspector and would have paved a way for any permanent grade.

10. It may be out of sphere and the petitioner begs leave to pardon, to add that it is very hard lines for him to pull on under the present high famine rates of staple food especially when he is surrounded by a number of dependants.

11. Lastly, in due consideration of the facts noted supra, the petitioner most humbly begs the kind hearted Collector to be pleased to obtain his permanent exemption for higher appointments such as Clerks and Sub-Inspectors in the mufassal or as a preventive officer in the Presidency Port and to favour him with a higher appointment whatever the generous Collector deems fit for the applicant.

For which act of kindness the petitioner shall be ever thankful.
