To the Secretary to the Government of Madras Educational Department.

Hon'ble Sir,

I am directed to forward for the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council a copy of letter No.2385, dated the 1st September 1913 from the District Judge, Vizagapatam, requesting the High Court to obtain the sanction of Government, as a special case, for the permanent exemption of D.Jagannaikulu Naidu, 1st clerk of his Court from passing the Civil Judicial Test, under Article 5 (1) of the Public Service Notification.

I have the honour to be,
Hon'ble Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Arthur Davies

Under Article 5 of the Public Service Notification (revised up to 31st August 1912) I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government in the Educational Department for the exemption of D. Jagannaikulu Naidu, permanent 1st Clerk on Rs. 40/- of my Court, from the operation of Article 3 of the Notification so as to enable him to hold posts in the Judicial Department for which the Civil Judicial Test is prescribed as a qualification.

2. The post of Central Nazir in my Court on Rs. 40/- having recently fallen vacant owing to the permanent incumbent being appointed Sub pro tem Head Clerk of a District Munsif's Court, I have appointed D. Jagannaikulu Naidu to the vacancy on the same pay. I have selected him for the place, though he gets no increase of pay thereby, as, I think, he is in every way a most suitable person to hold the post of Central Nazir - a post which requires special aptitude, administrative ability and energy. These characteristics D. Jagannaikulu possesses.

3. He has a service of over 20 years during which period he has held the post of Execution clerk, Superintendent of Copyists and Appeal Bench Clerk; in all of these billets he acquitted himself very well. His work as Civil Appeal Clerk came directly under my notice and I found it to be thoroughly and well done.

4. He has passed the late Middle School Examination in the 1st Class and the Translation Test Lower grade. He appeared for the Civil Judicial Test in 1901 but failed. He was specially permitted to appear for the Civil Judicial Test in 1908 & 1909 (G.O. No. 508, Educational dated 8th July 1908) but again failed. A subsequent application to Government was refused (G.O. Educational No. 289, Mis. dated 26th May 1910). He could not appear subsequently as he was barred by the present rules. (W) (G)

5. In these circumstances I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the necessary sanction of Government for the permanent exemption, as a special case, of D. Jagannaikulu Naidu from passing the Civil Judicial Test.

C. No. 2826 From the Regr of the High Court No 2776/13 dated 18-9-1913.

SUBJECT.

Permanent exemption of S. Jagannath Rayudu, clerk, S^t Court, Vizagapatam, from the Civil judicial test.

For a history of the several chances allowed to the candidate to pass the Civil judicial test please see notes on pages 11 & 12 of G.O. No 289 Ed, (G) dated 26th May 1910. He was not able to get through the examination successfully in any of the chances. The S^t Judge now recommends that Gov^t may exempt him permanently from the test so that he may be appointed Central nazir of the S^t Court. It is for consideration whether the recommendation of the S^t Judge should be accepted. The remarks of the Jud^l Dept^t may be obtained no. in the first instance.

The Honble the Chief Justice of the High Court of Judicature at Madras

Hon'ble Sir

In reply to Mr. Davies's letter
No. 2776/13 dated 18th September 1913 I am directed to state that H.E. the Governor-in-Council does not see ^{sufficient} reason to exempt D. S. Jagannayakulu Nayudu, clerk, S.E. Court, Vizagapatam from passing the Civil Justice test permanently.
