Sir,

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for permitting Mr. R. W. Ross, the Acting Vice-Principal of the Teachers' College, Saidapet, to write a series of five English Readers one each for the five classes from class III to Form III of Indian Schools at the request of the Oxford University Press.

2. The Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet states that this work can be carried out without detriment to Mr. Ross's legitimate duties in the College, that the terms upon which the work in question is to be undertaken by that officer have not yet been settled with the publishers and that Mr. Ross prefers to retain the copyright of the work if it is permissible. The Principal is very anxious that Mr. Ross should undertake the work as it will be in the nature of an experiment in connection with the teaching of English which is entrusted solely to him, and I accordingly beg to recommend that the permission asked for may be granted subject, however, to the condition that Mr. Ross retains no -- interest in the sale of the books and that he immediately disposes of it to the publishers.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. S. S. S. S.

C. No. 2912 From the J. P. I. No. 7727 dated 26.9.1913.

SUBJECT.

Mr. Ross to Permission to write a series of five English readers.

There seems to be no objection to grant the permission asked for.

2. As regards the condition proposed by the Director, that Mr. Ross should not retain any interest in the sale of the books and should immediately dispose of it to the publishers, attention is invited to the Honble (Sir) Mr. Hammick's note, dated 22nd November 1909 on page 3 of notes with L.O. No. 619. Ed. dated 23rd November 1909, in which he disapproved of laying down ^{such} a general condition governing all cases. He directs however that each case should be decided on its merits. Prior to this order all orders permitting officers to undertake editing of books were coupled with such a condition. The object is apparently to see that the officer who writes the book does not use his official influence to introduce it in educational institutions under his control and thus push on its sale. Obviously the Director is laying down this condition in respect of sanctions accorded by him in the case of Prof. Ed., & Subordinate Ed., service again.

Though Mr. Ross is now the Vice-Principal of the Teachers College, he may be posted to other appointments, such as Inspector of schools, sooner or later & will thus have an opportunity of furthering his own publication.
It is therefore for consideration whether the condition proposed by the Director may be accepted.
