Permanent exemption of A.
Gowindarajulu Naidu ✓

To Under-Secretary

G.O. 139 A T
23 9 12

Typist A. Gowindarajulu Naidu was exempted from the examination rules for six months to start with for appointment as clerk in the lower division. He has been tried as clerk off and on as vacancies arose from November of last year and has now been working continually as acting clerk from 7th June 1913. He has done his work very satisfactorily and is deserving of recommendation to Educational for permanent exemption.

In Office order 139 A of 23. 9. 12 Exemption was granted for 6 months. For what period ^{although} has the ~~clerk~~ typist actually been employed as a clerk. Is he acting in a permanent vacancy or what? Before going to Edl. for Exemption we have to decide whether we are going to take him on permanently as a clerk in the lower div. or not

3 I have no objection to G. Magudia employment from time to time in temporary or vacancies as they occur, but am not prepared without further consideration to comprise him as a clerk
in the lower div.

2. He ~~act~~ has acted as a grant of 2½ months' leave to

S. R. Gopalakrishna Mudr. from 19-8-13.

3. To take the typist permanently as a clerk in the Lower division will, it is subd., be in the interests of the Office. With his experience of over 12 year in this ^{Office}, he is thoroughly well acquainted with its routines and has done the several branches of work in the current section far better than a qualified clerk, whether new or experienced. It is advantageous to have in the Office a man like him who can turn onto any work in his division in an emergency. When a despatcher was wanted last July at Ooty on the permanent man going out for a district appt., a reliable substitute was found in Gopinadaiah Nayudu; and he did the despatcher's work without any complaint arising either from the office or from outside officers and frequently the case with a qualified matriculate despatcher (Narayana Nambisan) last year.

4. It cannot be said with reference to the proviso to rule 4 (1) - (3) of the Public Service notify that bonafide efforts have been made without success to obtain passed candidates and that therefore it is necessary to exempt and employ G. Nayden in the Lower Sd. ~~The~~ The Office has quoted at least one example of a qualified candidate having proved a failure, and it is respectfully submitted that though the rule stands as ~~that~~ referred to by Secretary, in practice the want of ^{taken into} qualified candidates is not the sole criterion ~~of~~ for granting exemptions, but consideration such as those sub^d above, and those of a man's deserts & of his nationality also on influence Govt. in granting exemptions.
