S i r ,

As the quantity of chalk available in the Government High School for Indian Girls, Vizagapatam, has been found to be insufficient, and as the school work could not be carried on without an immediate renewal of the supply, the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Northern Circle, permitted the Headmistress to purchase chalk locally for Rs 2-4-0. This is in violation of item 132, Appendix F. of the Madras Treasury Manual. In view, however, of the facts that the school is new and the Headmistress inexperienced, I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to accord sanction to this local purchase, as a special case, the cost of the chalk /Rs 2-4-0/ being met from the school contingencies.
