As personally directed by the Secretary, the Hindu for the last three months have been looked into. It may be noted that several articles on industrial subjects were published therein. These articles relate ^{chiefly} to requests for State aid to the promotion of industries during the present crisis, suggestions for the improvement of ^{Indian} sugar industry, for the manufacture of paper and Portland cement, the establishment of weaving schools ^{by the Govt} and the encouragement of weaving industry in Congerem and of the Marulipatam woollen carpets &c. It is for consideration whether in view of the fact that these articles may be of some use to the Bureau of Industrial Information, a supply of the Hindu (daily) may also be sanctioned.
