Sir,

In submitting herewith a letter from the Chairman, Municipal Council, Anantapur, R.C.No. 318, dated 24th -- November 1914, I have the honour to state that the plan of the building under construction for the Municipal High School, Anantapur, is in accordance with the type design prepared by the Consulting Architect and that the omission of the verandahs was intentional as they were considered unnecessary on the north side of the building. I do not therefore support the Chairman's request.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to move Government and have ~~added~~ ^{added} varandahs, both downstairs and upstairs, on the northern side of the wings in the new High School building now under construction.

2. Whatever may be the nature of expert opinion on the point or the Scientific principle upon which such opinion may be based, my actual Experience of nearly ten years in this School has shown beyond a shadow of doubt that it is impossible to work from morning to evening, from year end to year wend, in rooms which are not well protected by deep verandahs on all sides. Such officers as are still in doubt are invited to work for five hours consecutively and that too for five days without a break in rooms which have no verandah on the northern side. I am sure that their doubts will then vanish; for it is the wearer that knows--can know--where the shoe pinches.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
