Sir,

With reference to Memorandum No. 3009 C/14-2 Rev.,/ 7-12-1914, I have the honour to state that I obtained the use of a small Pencil Making Plant at Cocanada. It so happened that Mr. Luber, a Pencil Making Expert ^{with} ~~on the~~ very good credentials was ^{just} ~~first~~ then in Madras on his "beams ends". He was living at the Connemara Hotel where he was running up a bill, without paying which he could not leave. It was accordingly obvious that the longer he stayed here, the more it would cost to employ him.

The salary he demanded was Rs. 600/- but as he was in difficulties I offered him Rs. 10/- per day for 3 months, with the option of keeping him on for another 3 months. I also offered him the net profits on manufacture (if any) during this period. The latter concession is one of extremely problematic value to him and involves no expenditure on my part.

To get him out of the Connemara I took over his debt--in my private capacity--and am recovering the money from his pay.

As he is being paid daily wages I presume that the sanction of Government is unnecessary: in any case immediate action had to be taken and I used my discretion.

I may add that Mr. Lubber expects to supply pencils in a week or so.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant;

[Signature]
Ag. Director of Industries.

Dear Mr. Cardew.

In reply to your telephone message regarding Mr. Lister, I have had a very apologetic explanation. He asserts that he is a "perfectly loyal subject of His Majesty" and that ever since he has been in India he has "consistently pointed out the benevolence and advantages of the British Government to Indian farmers."

I have taken him on on a very liberal rate (Rs 300) per annum & promised him that I would recommend him for a bonus of the Government. The latter I wrote him has made him apprehensive of his bonus and I do not think that he will give any more trouble.

Yours sincerely,

D.O. from Mr. Tressler dated 13 Nov 14

Lüder is a German, naturalized as an Englishman. He has been engaged by Mr. Tressler to try & revive a pencil factory at Cocanada. He is strongly German in sympathy, & is reported to have shown this in his talk. His statements about his sentiments are, no doubt, worthless. I told Mr. Tressler by telephone to warn him that he will be sacked without further notice if we heard he was talking improperly. The papers are in Trol who should see this D.O.

I don't quite understand how Mr. Tressler has "taken him on" ~~on~~ on Rs. 300 per. Do we know anything about this? I suppose Lüder is to be paid out of the Rs. 10000 sp. grant for experiment?

Heads of Depts., however, have no power to employ temporary establishments and it is doubtful it is submitted if Mr. Drinker can employ the perusal expert without the sanction of Govt. even if he is to be paid from the grant already sanctioned by the Govt. The Fin. Dept. may it is submitted be consulted on the point, and if sanction of Govt. is necessary Mr. Drinker may be asked to apply for it formally. The file may be sent to the Fin. It is a little doubtful whether this should be dealt with in Educ.
Mr. Lubi's appointment is in connection with the special attempt to develop industries in consequence of the war.
I think Mr. Lubi should be asked for full details of the appointment in order that the sanction of the Govt. of India may be obtained.

I agree. O.M. accept & memo to be please ask Educ. whether they wd. prefer to take over the case. I do not think a Prov.

shd. be dealt with in Revenue merely because its progress is accelerated because of the war.
