SUBJECT. Extension of leave to Mr. Walters, Inspector of Factories

From The Judicial Department, no. 8, 8 7.1.15

Register No. 88 Edl.

Mr. Walters, Inspector of Factories, having now been granted extension of leave for six months from the 11th February 1915, his locum tenens, Mr. Webster, whose ~~present~~ permanent appointment is that of Inspector of Mechanical Engineering in the College of Engineering, Madras, will naturally continue in the acting appointment till the 11th August 1915. Mr. Webster's place in the College is now held by Mr. V. Ayyadurai Ayyar, who ^(securities) ~~has~~ been lent by the P. W. D. and that department have agreed as a special case to retain Mr. V. Ayyadurai Ayyar in the present post ~~only~~ till the 11th February 1915. When in Feb. August last the D.P.D. at the instance of the College Principal, suggested the recruitment from England of a qualified person ~~for~~ in the place of Mr. Webster, the Govt. stated that it was not necessary ~~to~~ apply for the recruitment of an officer for the comparatively short period was remained and that the question would be reconsidered ~~whether~~ if there was any likelihood of the vacancy continuing. It therefore seems necessary at present to consider the question of the recommitment of an officer from home. Before doing so, it is submitted that the Judicial Department may be asked to state in what stage the appointment of an ~~and~~ Assistant Inspector of Factories stands at present, in order to know whether there is any probability of Mr. Webster's services being permanently retained in the factory inspection establishment.

Educational Department

The question now for consideration is whether the Secretary of State should be requested to recruit a man from Europe for the post. According to the present arrangements, Mr. Webster will revert after 6 1/2 months. Allowing say two months for the recruitment of an officer and his arrival in India, there will remain only 4 1/2 months. It is doubtful whether ~~the~~ it will be possible for the Secretary of State to select a man for this short period, especially as there are no chances as at present know, of his being retained thereafter. Attention is in this connection solicited to the letter from the Director of Special Inquiries

 p. 2 of fo no 1398¹⁵²¹³ dated the 1st November 1912 in which the difficulty about the recommitment of officers for temporary ^{that} in the above circumstances it ~~may~~^{is} ~~not~~^{be} desirable to address the Secretary of State for an officer. If not, the P.W.D. may be requested to permit the retention of the present ^{acting} incumbent as a special case until Mr.

 Webster returns. It may be noted that out of the period that still remains about 2½ months will be taken up by the summer vacation of the College and the P.W.D. may, if necessary, utilize during that period the services of the acting incumbent.

It would not be worth while employing Mr. Ayyadurai Ayyar in any charge in the P.W.D. during the $2\frac{1}{2}$ months of the college vacation & then allowing him to return to the college. As Mr. Webster is due to return on the 15th August it is possible Mr. James would agree to do without a man for 6 weeks after the College reopens, in which case Ayyadurai Ayyar would be available for employment in the P.W.D. from the commencement of vacation, that is 9th April. A reference may be made to Mr. James later.
