Cochin State.

Sir,

I humbly beg to submit the following for your kind perusal and for favour of orders.

I am now employed as a clerk in the Excise Department of the Cochin State and have put in 10 years superior service. During this period I had to do work in several branches, both preventive and ministerial, and as such have experience in almost all branches of the work. As for my general educational qualification I have completed the course of studies for the Madras Matriculation examination and have also passed the following examinations conducted by the Union of Teachers, London.

- | | |
|-------------------------|---------------|
| 1. Advanced English. | First Class. |
| 2. Hand-writing | -do- |
| 3. Advanced Arithmetic. | Second Class. |

Under the circumstances, I humbly request that I may be exempted to appear for the Salt and Abkari Special Tests to enable me to become eligible for preventive superior service in the State.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Sd.) C.K.Venkataswarier, Excise Assistant Superintendent's Clerk,
Trichur, Cochin State, 15th July 1915.

Forwarded for favourable consideration. Applicant is employed in this department, and is a hardworking and intelligent clerk who would have risen to a higher appointment than he now holds had he the necessary educational qualification. If the rules permit the exemption that he asks for it is hoped that the same will be granted.

(Sd.) H. Brown,

Superintendent of Excise Revenue,
Cochin State.

OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. Permission to appear for Salt, Abkari & Customs tests

From the Board of Revenue: 1786 Salt & 17-8-15

Register No. 2941 So.

The Board of Revenue recommends that C. K. Venkateswara Ayyar, a clerk in the office of the Supdt of Excise Revenue in the Cochin State, may, as a special case, be permitted to appear for the Salt, abkari and Customs tests, which require a minimum educational qualification of holding a completed Secondary School Leaving Certificate or an equivalent thereto, none of which the applicant ~~has~~ possesses. The grounds put forward for the concession applied for, by the Supdt of Excise Revenue, appears to be based purely on personal grounds, ^{and in the interests of the State,} but in view of the fact that the Revenue Dept. supports the Board's recommendation to treat this as a special case, it is for consideration whether the concession may be granted. When such a concession is granted, it is usual, in the case of special tests to allow ^{the candidate} only ~~one~~ two chances. The Salt, abkari and and Customs tests are held twice ~~in a year~~ in the months of January & July. It is therefore for consideration whether the ^{applicant} ~~candidate~~ may be allowed ~~for~~ to appear for the tests to be held ^{in January and} in July, 1916, and ~~January in 1917~~. If so, draft order is submitted below ⁱⁿ for approval.
