This case is connected with the working of the old Press Act of 1869. I submit the Edict draft for acceptance - but I would point out that Sec 16 of the Act it is "the printer" who should be prosecuted. I am not sure if the warning memo issued by the Act under Sec 9(b) are binding for the case concerned not to the printer but to the printer H.N.L.

Notes in ce
 16/9/15

The proprietor of the Press is presumably the printer of the Vidgarati. If so the demand in Memo No. 1792-1 D of 20.5.15 is apparently a valid demand under sec 9 of the Act, & the draft sum in order.

I presume that such orders properly issue in Madras & if so it seems unnecessary to make for them just also.
