Esplanade, MADRAS.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department,

MADRAS.

Honourable Sir,

We beg to submit one copy each of Kavikunjara Bharati's Skanthapurana Kirthanai and Perimpakirthanai recently edited by Mr. N. Kotiswara Ayyar, B.A., the grand son of the author. ~~K~~ Kavikunjaram (Lion of Poets), as the title conferred by the great Pandits of Ramnad and Sivaganga Zamindaris assembled in Sivaganga implies, was ^a great Tamil Scholar and poet. His attainments in ^{music} ~~music~~ were of a high order.

The works which were in manuscript, have at considerable trouble been collected by the editor Mr. N. Kotiswara Aiyar and seen by him through the press.

Tamil scholars are agreed that the works are a master production of devotional songs and that they combine literary merit of a high order with a style which has the rare merit of being at once simple and grand. Its usefulness for young minds can only be gauged by the rapture in which children find themselves when they hear expositions of the book. It is a popular book for young boys and girls both for music and moral instruction.

In the field of Tamil literature and music there is not now extant a work simpler and more useful for the young than these.

We beg leave therefore to approach the Government for their patronage of these rare works and pray that they may be pleased to extend their gracious help to the publication by ordering the purchase of at least one copy for each library for boys and one copy for each class in the girls schools under the management of Government and by recommending their supply to Local board and Municipal schools in Tamil Districts.

We beg to remain,

Honourable Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

V. Kalyanaram
