From (Name) C. G. Mackay Esquire, I.C.S., (Designation) Registrar, High Court.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Judicial Department.

Hon'ble Sir,

T. Krishnasamy Iyer, a typist in the Judicial Department of the High Court, requests that he may be exempted permanently from the Examination Rules so as to render him eligible to hold posts in the clerical line in the office carrying a higher salary than he can obtain as a typist. He had put in more than 10 years service as a typist by August 1913, since when he has been promoted to act in the clerical line. His work as a clerk is satisfactory and in consideration of his long service and good work the Hon'ble the Chief Justice considers that the typist may continue as a clerk as a special case and be allowed the opportunity of being confirmed as such in a post the pay of which does not exceed Rs. 50.

To

The Registrar,

High Court of Judicature, Madras.

Honoured Sir,

I most humbly beg to bring the following few lines for your honour's kind consideration and support.

I am a permanent typist in the Judicial Branch of the High Court on a salary of Rs.33 per mensem; and I have put in 13 years service.

I was the first qualified typist entertained in this office in 1900 and confirmed in 1902. Clerks of my standing, qualification and service in the Accountant-General's Office and Post Master General's Office are taken in the clerical line and they are getting more than Rs.60 a month.

As to my qualifications, I beg to state that I have passed the Intermediate Test in Typewriting and the Elementary Test in Shorthand.

In August 1913, I represented to your honour in person my grievances and your honour was pleased to give me acting chances in the clerical line, in which I am still continuing.

According to the Public Service Notification, I am eligible only for Ag. appointment up to Rs.50 a month. well rule 10(b) 3

In this connection I beg to state that typists of my standing and qualifications in the Secretariat have been exempted from passing the Examination Rules in the lower grade up to Rs.60. the rule on 14 of May 3.

My work as a typist will be known by your honour's perusal of the copies of my testimonials and endorsements herewith annexed including the one given by the Hon'ble Mr Justice Sir Ralph Benson, Kt. M.A., I.C.S., Bar-at-law.

As regards my work in the clerical line, I beg to state that I have worked to the entire satisfaction of my superiors. Reference may be made to the managers T & P and R.O., under whom I have worked as Senior Court Clerk and Despatching Clerk respectively.

The application for exemption in the present case is based entirely on personal grounds. The rule granted only on some public grounds, e.g. that no suitable quali-

that the person thus exempted belongs to some backward com-

The "one case" referred to in the first Dept. note above, is that disposed of in G.O. No 610 Eol of the 1st September 1911. In this order the Govt. declined to sanction the exemption from the Civil Judicial test applied for on behalf of K. V. Anantarama Ayyar, translator of the District Court of Malabar, even though the High Court supported the recommendation of the District Judge for the grant of the exemption. But their Lordships took umbrage at this order and stated that for the future they would forward applications for such exemptions, but would express no opinion on them unless asked for by the Govt. to

to do so in any particular Case.

In the present Case the Hon'ble the Chief Justice recommends as a Special Case the exemption of the typist from the emancipation rules with a view to his ~~clerk~~ employment in a clerk's post the pay of which does not exceed Rs 50.

The Judicial Dept^{ts} does not apparently support the application for the reason that the ^{it} application is based entirely on personal grounds. It is for Consideration whether the exemption applied for may be refused in view ^{of the remarks} of the Jud^{ts} Dept^{ts} ^(on page 142) above, or whether with reference to the recommendation made by the Chief Justice, it may be granted as a Special Case. In the former Case, the draft order below is for approval.

Such requests are rarely made and may, I submit, be given special consideration.

For a precedent in which exemption was granted to typist as a special case, please see G.O. No 957 dtd. 15.10.13. (N)
