To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department.

Sir,

With reference to G. O. No. 762 Edl., Mis., dated 1st July 1914, regarding the republication of Vol. V. No. 3 of the Madras Museum Bulletin Series "Village Deities of Southern India", by the Bishop of Madras, I have the honour to forward for the orders of Government copies of his letters dated 18th and 22nd instant respectively, and to recommend that in the circumstances the question of the republication of the bulletin may be Jeynampet, Madras.

Dear Dr. Henderson,

My book on the Village Deities is now ready for printing, but the publisher wants about 20 photographs to illustrate it. Will you kindly let me know whether the plates of the illustrations of the old bulletin on the Village Deities are still available and whether Government would kindly allow them to be used for the new book?

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

(Sd.) Henry Madras.

Dear Dr. Henderson,

The new book on the Village Deities completely covers the ground and uses all the material which I think it would be desirable to print in a bulletin. The Editor of the series has also drawn up an excellent index for the book and a table of contents. I am sure that it will not be worth while for the Government to reprint the bulletin when the book is published which will, I hope, be in about two months' time. If you could kindly let the Editor of the series use some of the plates of the old bulletin for the new book there will be nothing of value in the bulletin which the book would not contain.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely
