DATED 1-10-15

[Despatch Abstract.]

Books + Publications

Informing M.R.R. Mr. J. K. V. Narasimham that the Government regret their inability to comply with his request to recommend the use of his book "War + the British Raj" in educational institutions.

Madras, 17th September 1915.

To

The Secretary,

Educational Department,

Government of Madras.

Sir,

"The War and the British Raj"in Tamil & in TeluguRef: Petition to the Government of MadrasEducational Department dated 17th June '15No.6257: Director of Public Instructiondated 20th Aug 1915.

(V) I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of the copy of --- G.O.No.996 dated 13th September 1915 informing me that, in view of the the Government having sanctioned the purchase of 5000 copies of the Tamil and 5000 copies of the Telugu Editions of the book--"The War and the British Raj", they are not prepared to make any further purchases of the book.

While I beg to tender my deep-felt thanks, which I most -- heartily do, for the kind patronage of the Government, may I venture to beg that, if the Educational Department are not prepared to ---- patronise further, they will at least be pleased to refer the matter to the Director of Public Instruction with the suggestion that he may recommend, through the respective Inspectors and Sub Inspectors of Schools under his jurisdiction, for the use of the book in the various aided and unaided Institutions in the Presidency as a book of reference in every Library attached thereto and also as a book suitable for the use of School masters and Students as a knowledge of the contents of this book will materially benefit them.

I sincerely trust that this prayer will meet with your kind response in consideration of the Government having already set the the seal of approval on the book.

Begging to hear on the subject,

I have the honour to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T. K. V. Narasimha
