EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from K. T. B. TRESSLER, Esq., Acting Director of Industries.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Madras, the 19th December 1914.
No.—48-E.

With reference to the correspondence ending with G.O. No. 1191, dated 22nd October 1914, I have the honour to address Government on the subject of the weaving assistant attached to this department. The appointment was first created in 1902 on a temporary footing and has been existing uninterruptedly since then. The assistant was first placed in charge of the weaving classes attached to the School of Arts; he was subsequently in charge of the Salem School of Weaving; when that school was abolished in 1910 on account of the change of policy then inaugurated, he was put on certain experiments conducted in my office connected with Jacquard machines and when it was decided that instruction parties should be sent out to the mufassal to explain the working of improved weaving appliances to the weavers near their homes, my weaving assistant was placed on special duty for that purpose. The Government will thus observe that the appointment was never in abeyance since its inception. In these circumstances, I have the honour to request that the Government will be pleased to place the appointment of weaving assistant as in the analogous case of the tanning assistant, on a permanent footing. The pay may be fixed at Rs. 200 which is the pay proposed for the weaving assistant's place in the Madura Institute and approved by Government. When that institute is started, there is no need for a separate officer of that rank for purposes of local instruction and the appointment now proposed may be merged in that sanctioned in connection with the Madura Technical Institute.

Order—No. 109, Educational, dated 4th February 1915.

The Government sanction the proposal of the Director of Industries to make the post of weaving assistant in the Industrial Department permanent and to fix its pay at Rs. 200. The appointment will be transferred to the Madura Technical Institute when weaving classes are opened there.

2. This sanction is registered as No. 263 of 1914-15.

3. M.R.Ry. N. Subrahmanya Ayyar will be appointed permanently to the post. He will, however, continue to be on deputation in the peripatetic weaving party till the post is transferred to the Madura Institute. In the meanwhile no substitute will be appointed to act for Mr. Subrahmanya Ayyar in the post of weaving assistant.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 109, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 4TH FEBRUARY 1915.

[SUBJECT.—Requesting that the appointment of weaving assistant may be placed on a permanent footing.]

From the Director of Industries, dated 19th December 1914, No. 48-E.

The post of weaving assistant in the Department of Industries has been in existence from the year 1902, but only on a temporary footing apparently as the department itself was temporary till recently. Since the year 1904, M.R.Ry. N. Subrahmanya Ayyar has been the incumbent of this post. In 1907, a pay of Rs. 125 rising by annual increments of Rs. 5 (maximum not fixed) was sanctioned for this appointment. The post is at present vacant, Mr. Subrahmanya Ayyar, the incumbent thereof, having been appointed to be in charge of one of the weaving instruction parties touring in the Presidency on a pay of Rs. 200 per mensem. The latter arrangement is, however, only temporary: it has since been decided that the weaving assistant should be transferred to the Madura Technical Institute when the new buildings for the institute are constructed and weaving classes are opened there. Mr. Tressler now requests that the post of weaving assistant may be placed on a permanent footing and that its pay may be fixed at Rs. 200. He states that the post may be amalgamated with the staff of the Madura Institute when the weaving section is established there. This proposal is made apparently with a view to provide the weaving assistant, Mr. Subrahmanya Ayyar, with a permanent appointment in the Department of Industries. This gentleman, whose permanent post is in the Educational Department on a pay of Rs. 60, has been working in the department for the last fourteen years, first as manager of the Aluminium department and then as weaving assistant. It has not, however, been possible to provide him with a permanent appointment so long, as the post of weaving assistant was temporary and there was no other suitable appointment in the department in which he could be employed. His work has all along been highly commended both by Mr. Chatterton and by Mr. Tressler and has been favourably reviewed by the Government. On two former occasions, he submitted memorials to the Government requesting that he might be provided with a permanent appointment; but consideration of the petitions has been deferred pending the introduction of the reorganization of the institute and as Mr. Tressler did not submit any other definite proposal. Mr. Tressler's present proposal is that the post submit any other definite proposal. Mr. Tressler's present proposal is that the post of weaving assistant may be made permanent at once and that Mr. Subrahmanya Ayyar may be appointed in it. It is submitted that the proposal does not involve any extra cost as Mr. Subrahmanya Ayyar will continue to be in charge of the peripatetic weaving party till the Madura Institute is opened and that no substitute will be appointed in the post of weaving assistant in the meanwhile. The proposal may, therefore, it is submitted, be sanctioned. It is very hard on Mr. Subrahmanya Ayyar that he should be kept on deputation for fourteen years with but a very low post as permanent. He cannot now have long leave without putting himself to serious inconvenience.

2. As regards the pay proposed for the post, viz., Rs. 200, it is submitted that this is the rate proposed by Mr. Chatterton for the weaving assistant in the Madura Institute. Mr. Tressler, however, later on suggested that, in view of the fact that the assistant was to be in sole charge of the weaving section, his pay should be now proposes to give only the minimum pay suggested by Mr. Chatterton, the FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

The proposals in this case are indicated below :—

Existing arrangements.

Proposed arrangements.

Temporary—

One weaving assistant, pay Rs. 125 rising by annual increments of Rs. 5*. (Post vacant.)

One Superintendent, Peripatetic Weaving Party †, Rs. 200 per mensem.

(Post now held by N. Subrahmanya Ayyar whose permanent appointment is one on ‡ Rs. 50—2—60 in the Educational Department.)

Permanent—

One weaving assistant (200) (N. Subrahmanya Ayyar to be permanently appointed to this post, but he is to continue to be on deputation as Superintendent, Peripatetic Weaving Party, no acting arrangement being made in the vacancy).

Temporary—

One Superintendent, Peripatetic Weaving Party †, Rs. 200 per mensem (N. Subrahmanya Ayyar is to do the duties though appointed as permanent weaving assistant).

It will be seen that for the present the proposed arrangements will not involve any extra cost.

* Paragraph 4 of G.O. No. 1875, Revenue, dated 26th July 1907.

† Paragraph 1 of G.O. No. 198, Educational, dated 4th March 1913.

‡ He has reached the Rs. 60 stage in the Rs. 50—2—60 grade.

2. In connection with the reorganization of the Madura Technical Institute Government have generally approved of the appointment of a permanent weaving assistant on Rs. 200 for the institute, but the creation of that appointment has not yet been definitely sanctioned as the post will be required only when the Madura Institute buildings are completed. It is stated that the permanent weaving assistant on Rs. 200 now proposed will take the place of the weaving assistant intended for the institute.

assistant on Rs. 200 now proposed will take the place of the weaving assistant intended for the institute.

3. It is submitted that, as referred to in paragraph 2 above, there is no immediate necessity for the creation of the post of the permanent weaving assistant on Rs. 200, except for the purpose of providing immediately a permanent place on Rs. 200 for Mr. N. Subrahmanya Ayyar whose present permanent place is one on Rs. 50—2—60. The Educational Department propose to create the permanent post immediately inasmuch as its creation does not involve extra cost to Government as pointed out in paragraph 1 on page 1. It is for orders whether, in the
