Station Madras, Dated the 12th August 1915

From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. H.S. Duncan, M.A., (Designation) Ag. Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

/Through Educational Department.

Sir, the Accountant General/

I have the honour to report that the Drawing mistress employed in the Government Secondary and Training school for mistresses, Triplicane, has resigned her appointment and that the school has been without a drawing teacher since 1st April last. The Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Central Circle, reports that notwithstanding the enquiries made by her for a properly qualified teacher none has been forthcoming. As there is no likelihood of such a teacher being available in the near future, Miss Lynch, with a view to making some provision for the adequate training of teachers in the subject, suggests that Mr. Porrett, Manual Instructor, Teachers' College, Saidapet, may be allowed to hold classes in Drawing, clay modelling, card-board modelling etc., for teachers in the Government Secondary and Training School, Triplicane. She states that with Mr. Porrett's help efforts will be made to have one of the Assistants in the school specially trained this year so that she may eventually fill the post of drawing mistress in the school.

2 Mr. Porrett is willing to give the lectures once a week, and the Principal, Teachers' College whom I have consulted has no objection to his doing the work on Saturdays.

3 I consider the arrangement proposed to be very desirable and have accordingly permitted Mr. Porrett to give lessons in Drawing in the Government Secondary and Training School for mistresses, Triplicane, for two hours every Saturday for a period of three months from 17th July 1915. For the extra work I consider that Mr. Porrett should be allowed an honorarium at the rate of Rs.10 per lecture, which is expected to amount monthly to Rs.40/-, the minimum pay attached to the post of drawing mistress in the school which is now vacant. The proposal does not involve therefore any extra cost.

2. Under Article 71 of the Civil Service Regulations, Mr. Porrett is not entitled to any additional remuneration in respect of the extra work now imposed on him. The monthly honorarium of Rs.40/- proposed by the Director of Public Instruction is therefore inadmissible. There is, however, no objection to the grant of a conveyance allowance not exceeding Rs.3/- a day under Article 1061 of the Civil Service Regulations.

Subject.

Remuneration to Mr. Porrett for conducting drawing classes for the teachers in the Government Secondary and Training school for mistresses, Triplicane.

Mr. Porrett is one of the two manual training instructors (salary Rs.400-20-500) who were appointed by the Secretary of State for India. He arrived here in October last and is attached to the Teachers' College, Saidapet, where he is principal functions are to give a course of instruction to each batch of students under training and more -- extended courses to students or teachers who wish to specialize as manual training instructors. He is also required to pay occasional visits for the purpose of organizing similar courses in training

institutions and non-European secondary schools.

Under clauses (2) and (3) of the agreement

Mr. Porrett will have to devote his whole time to the duties of the public service and should, when required by the Government, proceed to any other part of the Province within which he may be

2. In the circumstances stated in para 1 of his current letter, the D.P.I has permitted Mr. Porrett to give lessons in drawing, ~~and~~ card-board modelling, clay-modelling etc. for teachers in the Government secondary and training school for mistresses, Triplicane, for two hours every Saturday for a period of three months from the 17th July 1915 and he requests sanction to the payment to him of an honorarium at the rate of Rs.10/- per lecture i.e. Rs.40/- a month; the minimum pay attached to the post of drawing mistress in the school which is now vacant. The D.P.I. has apparently satisfied himself that the extra work required of Mr. Porrett can be done without detriment to his legitimate duties.

3. The A.G. however takes objection to the payment of the honorarium on the authority of article 71 of the C.S.R. and suggests, instead, the grant of a conveyance allowance not exceeding Rs.3/- a day under article 1081 of the C.S.R. This would amount to only Rs.12 p.m.

4. As ~~the~~ Mr. Porrett's whole time is paid for the State and the extra work required of him is within his own branch of duty, the A.G.'s ~~contention~~ ^{attention} appears to be reasonable. It is there-~~fore~~ for consideration whether Mr. Porrett may be granted a conveyance allowance of Rs.3 per day in lieu of an honorarium of Rs.10 ^{per lecture} recommended by the D.P.I.

For A.S.

Article 71 of the C.S.R. referred to by the A.G. in para. 2 of his Encl. only enunciates a general principle which applies to all whole-time officers of Government, and it has no special bearing on the case of Mr. Porrett now in question under para. IV. of C.G.I. Fin. Resol. 249-E-A of 15.7.1912 which is also embodied in the present art. 72 of the C.S.R. 5th Edition (Reprint). an officer may be granted an honorarium for work which he is required to perform either within or outside the course of his ordinary duties, when the work is of such exceptional merit or of such an arduous or peculiar nature as to justify a special reward. Mr Porrett's extra work, if it cannot be called one of exceptional merit or of an arduous nature, is at least "peculiar" in that it puts him to carriage expenses which he would not otherwise incur, and involves additional labor: There appears to be objection to bringing his case under article 72 (a) of the C.S.R.

2. Amount of Remuneration. At the rates

recommended by the D.P.I., Mr. Porrett will draw in all for his 3 months of extra work, $3 \times 40 = \text{Rs } 120$. If he were England ^{this honorarium can} be granted ^{by this Govt.} in lump sum as payment art 72 (b) of the C.S.R. ^(and note to para II) as para II of the G.O. Resolution on p. 3 of G.O. 479 of Govt. of a recurring honorarium or reward.

It is, however, observed from the correspondence in G.O. No. 1244 Edl. 24. 12. 1913 that Mr.
Porrett is only a non-gazetted officer.
There is thus no objection to the remuneration
for the extra work being given either as a recurring honorarium, (or as a local allowance) of Rs 40 p.m., or as a lump reward of Rs 120 for 3 months.

3. Other ways of meeting this case. The A.G.
suggests one method viz concession in article 108 of the C.S.R. This will however, give Mr.
Porrett only Rs 12 p.m. which ^{Edl.} considers inadequate.

Another method would be to extend the concession ^(under art. 99 C.S.R.) sanctioned in G.O.
70 Edl. 2. 2. 1897 in the case of some officers in Teacher's College, Sadaipete. It will be

p. 59 go. rego²

Seen from the correspondence in this go. that the distance between the Chief Public Officer in Madras and Saidapet being less than 5 miles, no daily allowance is ordinary permissible for a journey from Saidapet to Madras. The order in go. no. 70 ddt. 3-2-1897, however, permit the officers specified therein to draw a day's daily allowance for each journey to Madras from Saidapet. If the distance between Teacher's College, Saidapet, & the Tropicae School be more than 5 miles, and if a similar go. were passed, Mr Perrett could draw Rs 5 p.d. for every trip to Madras or Rs 20 p.m. in all. For orders whether he may be dealt with in this manner or as specified in para 2 above.

I would solve the difficulty by giving him a local allowance of Rs 40/- a month remunerative in nature. The A.C. could not object.
