OFFICE NOTE.

Edl: Japh.

SUBJECT. Continuance of the services of Miss Park, temporary lecturer on domestic economy, for another year.

From the D. P. I. R. C. 4322/14, dated the 4th September 1915.

Register No. 3081 Edl.

Miss Winifred Park is a temporary lecturer on domestic economy for European and Eurasian girls in the city of Madras on a salary of Rs.300/- per mensem. She was engaged in the first instance for a period of one year from 1st September 1914 with the sanction of the Government of India. She, however, joined the appointment on the forenoon of the 12th September 1914 and the period of one year expired on the 11th September 1915. The Director of Public Instruction now proposes that the period of Miss Park's appointment be extended by another year.

2. For the previous history of the domestic economy classes, please see page 1 of the notes to G.O. No. 913 Edl, dated the 3rd August 1914. In this connection, attention is solicited to the notes and orders in G.O. No. 1225 Edl, dated the 3rd November 1914

1914 in which an extension of the work in domestic science in connection ~~with~~ European schools was also sanctioned. ^{Under} that scheme Miss Park is in charge of the cookery and general housewifery courses. The Director states that the question of continuing the domestic science classes is engaging his attention and that he would ^{shortly} submit detailed proposals on the matter. The Director does not however give any reasons for the extension of the services of Miss Park for another year. Apparently the scheme proved a great success and has continued to give ^{practical} benefit to the Eurasian and poor European community.

The detailed proposals regarding the continuance of the domestic science classes which the Director will send in shortly may probably contain an account of the work done in that connection. In the meantime it is for consideration whether, as recommended by the Director of Public Instruction, Miss Park's term of appointment may be extended for another year. In that case, she being a European and the pay of the appointment being more than Rs.200/- per mensem, the sanction of the Government of India is necessary to her appointment under Article 773 (a) of the Civil Account Code—Vol. II.

3. There is a full year's provision in the current year's budget on account of the scheme sanctioned in G.M.O. 1225 Ed1, dated the 3rd November 1914.

4. Subject to orders on para 2 ante, a draft order and a draft letter to India are submitted for approval. If approved, the file may be sent u.o. to Financial for acceptance of the drafts or for remarks.

The D.P.9. can no doubt give an assurance that the scheme continues a success and that the extension of Miss Park's appointment is a necessity.

 On the scheme certainly continues a success and the extension of Miss Park's appointment is a necessity.

For A. S.

In G.O. 913 Eol 3.814 the Govt sanctioned the employment of a lecturer on domestic economy for European schools on Rs 300 pm for one year and the Govt of India were addressed ^{(with ref. to art. 773(a) C.A. Code Vol II.)} in regard to the appointment of Miss Park for the post. This was sanctioned by the Govt of India. It is now proposed to continue the services of Miss Park for another year from 11.9.1915.

2. When the appointment ^{of Miss Park} was originally sanctioned, it was pointed out that the local Govt was financially competent to sanction ^{the} its creation ^{the post} but that the sanction of the Govt of India was necessary as it was proposed to appoint to the post a European to an office carrying a salary of more than Rs 200 pm. It is also within the competence of the local Govt to sanction the continuance of the appointment but it is doubtful whether the retention of Miss Park's services requires the sanction of the Govt of India. The requirements of art. 773(a) C.A. Code Vol II appear to have been satisfied once the Govt of India to the employment of Miss Park and if the applt: is continued or even made permanent his continued employment does not require the sanction of India.

We may accept the proposal to continue the applt for another year, and leave the Ad. to object to Miss Park's ^{employment} ~~applt~~.

We can accept but in the G. of I. specifically sanctioned for one year only I think the Ad. will object to retention without further sanction. However we can try.
