Dear Toxhute,

My annual increment of Rs 50 falls due in the ordinary course tomorrow - 4th Nov.
Your office, however, tells me that the sanction of Govt. is required to allow the period spent on special duty to count for increment. (Cold

3
you very kindly arrange this for me?

My pay +
the increment now due will be Rs 700, and I have to take a last pay certificate with me when I leave on Friday, so this is not much time.

I am also putting in for an advance on account of the move to Bengal.

I have asked the office to put up a bill for your counter signature.

With apologies for troubling.

Yours

Yours sincerely
J. H. M. S. S.

P.S. It has occurred to me that the Ordnance Dept. would do v. well for Treasurer's work.

(Madras
Supplement
to the C.R.)

under the ruling of the Govt. of India reproduced as note 1 to art. 160 of the C.S.R.

"An officer, while temporarily employed on special duty outside his ordinary work, is debited from counting his ~~day~~ services on the temporary duty for increments in his permanent post. The reason for this is that, while so employed, he is not, as a rule, acquiring the additional experience for which the incremental pay of his substantive post is granted."

So 5197 Jul. 14.8.15 (F)

Mr. Melville who was placed on ~~special duty~~ special duty for a period of two months in the Chief Secret: in connection with the draft of a bill in the lines of the English children's act now, however, he allowed to by the Govt: to count his period of special duty towards his increment under the 2nd ruling made to art: 160 of the C. S. R. which read as follows:—

p. 37 of the Supplement G.S.R.

"But if such additional experience is being acquired by the service in the temporary employment such temporary service may be allowed to count for increments in the officer's permanent post, the question whether a period of deputation should or should not be allowed to count for increments in an officer's substantive appointment is one for the decision of the Local Govt: under whose orders the officer was placed on special duty"

3 In this case it may be held that the officer was really acquiring additional experience ~~justified~~ required by the above rule rulings. Further at the time of posting Mr. Melville for special duty it could not have been the intention of the Govt. to deprive him of the benefits of the time-scale pay attached to his permanent appt.

His special duty would appear to have been decided in the interests of the Public Service.

4 For these circumstances it is submitted that Mr. Melville's request may be complied with.
The draft order submitted below may issue with the consent of ~~the~~ official
