The revised memorial of Ghulam Mohammad Ghouse
Sahib, Grand son of His Highness Zahir-ud-Dowlah -- Bahadur G.O.S.I., the late 2nd Prince of Arcot.

Most Respectfully sheweth,

- 1 That the memorialist was directed by the most charitable and benign Government in R.C.No.477 dated 12th January 1915 - that he should apply for exemption sought for by him in his memorial dated 12th November last submitted through the Prince of Arcot and the Pay Master Carnatic Stipends, Madras.
- 2 That the memorialist obtained a non-pensionable footing in the Presidency Magistrates Court, Georgetown as an Examiner of Copyists on a small salary of Rs. 15/- per mensem. He has given every satisfaction to his immediate superiors in discharging the duties entrusted to him and also learned works - of the office.
- 3 That the memorialist most respectfully begs to submit that as an Examiner he has no scope either for any further prospects or for pensionary privileges.
- 4 That the memorialist most respectfully submit that acting as well as permanent vacancies are generally created in this office and in as much as he is not qualified under examination rules such posts are shut out from him, and that a vacancy has been created on account of the transfer of a clerk of -- Egmore court elsewhere. Further new benches of courts of -- Honorary Presidency Magistrates having been ordered, there will be pretty chances for him.

Under the circumstances the memorialist prays the beneshall ever pray for the long reign of British Raj and that --
