I have the honour to state that we receive from the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, one copy of each quarterly catalogue of the books registered in the Madras Presidency. The copy is catalogued and deposited in the Library. I am to request you to be so good as to issue instructions for the supply to the Library of duplicate copies of the catalogues for the quarters ended the 31st December, 1914, 31st March, 1915, and 30th June, 1915, and two copies of each issue in future. The Library Council wishes to form a card-indexes of the publications announced in the quarterly catalogues. I therefore wish to have duplicate copies to cut out entries and paste these on cards.
